Ford Starts Huge Layoff Of 33,500

Strike-Hit Firm May Be Completely Shut Down In Week

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—The strike-troubled Ford Motor Co. starts a huge layoff of workers across the country tonight in what Ford President Arjay Miller says may become a full shutdown by next week.

Week-old strikes by the United Auto Workers at eight factories, including key parts and stamping plants that feed the Ford car production setup, are held to blame.

If Ford closes all its 90 plants, a total of 160,000 hourly workers will be laid off.

Ford, with 25,500 men on strike at the eight plants, announced a layoff tonight of 33,500 more at eight assembly operations and 16 manufacturing locations in several states, including key Michigan installations. This will be an immediate total idle of 59,000 men.

The company made its announcement late Thursday from Dearborn headquarters almost simultaneously with a union charge that Ford's "obstinate attitude" had prevented strike settlements.

Ken Bannon, director of the UAW Ford Department, issued a statement saying Ford "stubbornly refuses" to agree to terms at some plants which he said management already had accepted at other plants.

Ford made no immediate comment on the charge.

The separate, local strikes bear on individual at-the-plant issues. Local agreements supplement the national Ford-UAW contract. Ford, like rival General Motors and Chrysler, came to national agreements with the union weeks ago, although GM was troubled into last week by local disputes, all now settled.

Ford and the UAW gave up Wednesday in efforts to settle four of the strikes in top-level negotiations here.

The union ordered its national Ford bargaining committee to Detroit and proposed a further meeting next Thursday.

Dallas Local, Ford Reach Agreement

DALLAS (AP)—A spokesman for the United Auto Workers said today that the Dallas local has reached agreement with the Ford Motor Co.

There was no immediate information on when the Dallas employes will return to work.

The Dallas local, and seven others across the country, remained on strike over local issues although a general national agreement had been reached.

Aid Pledged By Johnson For Mexico

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, pledging to "take up arms" with Mexico in fighting disease, poverty, hunger and ignorance, pressed ahead today with final talks with Mexico's President-elect Gustavo Diaz Ordaz.

Diaz Ordaz, himself a landslide election victor who will be inaugurated Dec. 1 as the Mexican chief executive, was winding up a 27-hour stay at the Johnson Ranch.

Diaz Ordaz was to return with his wife to Mexico City after another formal session with Johnson and a private luncheon.

The order of the day was not confined wholly to business, however. There was the inevitable tour of the American President's 400 acres, with Johnson as the enthusiastic guide.

In welcoming Diaz Ordaz Thursday afternoon, Johnson said: "We are meeting here to talk together and to work together, and to take up arms together against the ancient enemies of mankind — disease and poverty and hunger and ignorance."

Diaz Ordaz responded by saying: "I am here to seal a friendship with a warm handshake with President Johnson from me and the Mexican people, and to him and through him to the American people."

Beaver Local Issue Settled

Recount Verifies Defeat For Levy

Beaver Local School District's 5.4-mill levy picked up 19 votes in a 15-precinct recount completed Thursday afternoon by the County Election Board, but still fell 31 short of enactment.

The new tabulation of all except two precincts in the sprawling subdivision cut the negative vote by 16 and boosted the affirmative vote by three for a net change of 19 in favor of the levy.

THE NEW OFFICIAL count total, including figures from the two precincts not recounted, showed:

For	1,811
Against	1,842

The official canvass of the returns, completed Saturday, had showed 1,808 in favor of the levy and 1,858 against, a margin of 50.

The new totals for the 15 precincts which were recounted showed 1,802 in favor of the levy, 1,833 opposed. In the offcial canvass, the totals for the same 15 prceincts showed 1,799 in favor of the levy and 1,849 against.

Frank R .O'Hanlon, clerk, explained that the board arrived at the new official total by using the figures produced by the recount in 15 of the precincts, plus the vote for and against the issue in the two precincts which were not recounted.

FOLLOWING completion of the recount, the Election Board voted to charge the Beaver Local petitioners $5 per precinct to help cover the cost — the minimum fixed by state law. The five voters who sought the recount had been required to post a surety of $10 per precinct to guarantee the cost would be paid. The board's action means that the petitioners will receive a $75 refund.

Law provides for a refund of the entire amount if the result of the election is changed. In addition, there is no charge for recounting any precinct in which the new tabulation shows a change of more than 4 per cent in the petitioners' vote.

But there were no "free" precincts in yesterday's recount. Despite scattered changes, the vote in favor of the levy did not go up more than 4 per cent in any precinct.

Launched at a little after 9 a.m. yesterday, the recount continued until noon. The board then took a break for lunch and resumed the tabulation at 1:30. It was completed at 2.

Roy Cashdollar, executive head of the district, was present throughout, along with Mrs. Ruth Green, chairman of the voters' committee that petitioned for the recount.

The Beaver Local board already has started action to seek another vote on the issue at a special election in early January.

'Teen' Beauties Get Lucky Friday The 13th Charms

DALLAS (AP) — Fifty-two talented Miss Teen-Age America candidates met 60 singing Texas Aggies Thursday night for a "lucky Friday the 13th" party.

They got rabbit-foot charms, plenty of wood to knock on, and wells to throw wishes down. Prizes for locating lucky pennies were troll dolls, themselves considered a good luck figure.

On this Friday the 13th, one girl will be propelled into the spotlight for a year as Miss Teen-Age America, 1965, with a $10,000-college scholarship and many prizes.

The 10 semifinalists named Thursday were Gayle Brackett, 16, Atlanta, Ga.; Carolyn Magnini, 17, Baltimore, Md.; Nancy Collins, 14, Dallas; Andrea Ayers, 16, Greenville, S.C.; Lana Karen Lack, 17, Memphis, Tenn.; Sherrel Stephens, 17, Oklahoma City; Kathleen Frances Ross, 17, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Linda Licciardi, 17, San Francisco; Diana Lee Clouse, 17, Stockton, Calif., and Debra Diethelm, 15, Toledo, Ohio.

The singing cadets from Texas A&M University surprised the candidates Wednesday night with a serenade outside the pajama party given by the outgoing teen queen, Jeanie Zavrel of Falls Church, Va.

But as Aggie James Riggs put it, the serenade was just a "formal howdy-do; Thursday night was a real mixer."

A rock 'n' roll band played for dancing between bites of barbecue. Some couples wandered to the edge of the observation deck, 41 stories above the glittering lights of Dallas. And the girls relived the week-long pageant by seeing movies of themselves.

Most Aggies were frankly impressed with the candidates. Riggs said, "They're real nice girls; very poised and, of course, nervous. They're friendly and having a good time, but are tired."

Rail Unions Set Walkout For Nov. 23

150,000 In Shops Get Instructions; Firms Not Notified

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six railroad shop unions have scheduled a strike against most of the nation's railroads for 6 a.m. (local time) Nov. 23, union sources said today.

The strike notice has not yet been served on the railroads but union general chairmen are issuing instructions to the more than 150,000 shop workers, sources said.

Federal mediators continued efforts to reach a settlement in a 17-month-old wage dispute, meeting with union spokesman Michael Fox.

J.E. Wolfe, chief railroad negotiator, returned to Chicago Thursday night after also meeting with mediators.

Union sources said the strike notices probably will be sent out today or Saturday.

The six shop unions are among 11 nonoperating unions involved in the wage talks. The other five unions have set no strike action, but reportedly would respect the picket lines of the shop men.

All told, the 11 unions involve more than 400,000 railroad employes.

The shop craft unions have rejected the recommendation of a presidential emergency board for wage increases of 27 cents an hour over three years, contending it was too little.

A 30-day strike ban under provisions of the Railway Labor Act expires at midnight Nov. 19, three days before the scheduled shop crafts strike.

The unions contend their wage scales average far less than for comparable jobs in other industries.

The hourly pay of the 11 nonoperating unions averages $2.58 and of the six shop crafts, $2.63, union sources said.

The six AFL-CIO shop unions are the International Association of Machinists, the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, the Sheet Metal Workers, International Association, the International Brotherhood of Electricians, the brotherhood of Railway Carmen and the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers.

Lawrenceville Child Runs Into Side Of Car

A young Lawrenceville girl was in "fair" condition in City Hospital with injuries received when she ran into the side of a passing car in the community Thursday at 4:15 p. m.

Darlynn Sue VanDyke, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald VanDyke, suffered abrasions of the shoulder and contusions of the head.

Chester Police Chief Harold Davis said the driver, Bertha J. Porter, of Park Blvd., East Liverpool, came to Chester City Hall to report the accident to him.

The youngster was running when she suddenly darted into the side of the car, according to the report.

Police Hold Couple In Death Of Son, 3

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Police are holding a 23-year-old mother of six on a general charge of murder pending an inquest into the death of her 3-year-old son.

She is Mary Shreve of nearby Chalfant, whose child, Paul, died Wednesday night in a hospital of malnutrition and contusions. He weighed 12 pounds.

The boy's father, Herschel, 27, also was held Thursday as an accessory.

One Of Most Severe In History

Drought-Hit Areas Turn To Emergency Measures

By The Associated Press

Communities turned to emergency measures for water over the eastern half of the nation today as one of the most severe droughts in history took a costly toll.

Forest fires raged, communities sought emergency aid and winter crops wasted away in the warm, sunny autumn. Officials said the drought would cost farmers and other citizens millions of dollars.

Some communities began drawing water from recreational lakes. Farmers were using tank trucks to haul water to their fields.

Some rain eased the dry spell slightly in the Midwest, but one farmer said, "It (the rain) just didn't begin to soak in."

A four-day rain and snow storm in Northern California began tapering off Thursday night. Most of the West Coast was soaked. Other parts of the Northwest lay under snow.

The New Jersey Conservation Department has directed water suppliers to report to state agencies every other day on the water supply so that state can take emergency action when warranted. Officials said there is enough water on hand for 38 days.

Residents in the North Jersey community of Franklin Lakes are borrowing water for bathing. The last measurable rainfall in New Jersey was .01 inch Nov. 5.

Light showers Thursday in New England did little to alleviate the drought, which passed its 195th day. A Massachusetts official estimated that the state's dairy industry and produce farmers alone would suffer $6 million damages.

Officials in Fitchburg, Mass., said the community must have plentiful rain by mid-December or face the prospect of no water at all by February.

New York City has been supplying water from city reservoirs since September to nearby towns which have shortages.

Many Pennsylvania farmers are trucking water for livestock and for winter wheat. Twenty-seven communities are using emergency water supplies. Officials said the forest fire situation is getting worse.

Forty-eight forest fires broke out in Pennsylvania Wednesday, destroying 575 acres. Fires have been averaging 25 a day since the first of the month.

Farmers in the Midwest, who stand to lose about $100 million from expected income, gazed on bone dry fields.

More than 4,500 acres of brush and timber have been scorched in the past two days in Indiana, where the last rain was Oct. 18. The state is 4.46 inches below last year's rainfall.

Illinois struggled through one of it's most disastrous autumns in history. Wheat was stunted, and the southern half of the state fought hundreds of brush and forest fires. Southern Illinois has gone 45 consecutive days without rain, a record.

Heavy rains struck virtually all of Wisconsin Thursday accompanied by wind gusts up to 58 m.p.h.

Oregon was soaked by torrential rainstorms and mountain areas were coated with snow. In Colorado, ski operators were elated by a two-day snowstorm that measured up to a foot.

A solid three days of rain and snow ended the long dry spell in California. Heavy snows in the mountains sent ski areas into high gear.

No Rain Until Monday

Burning Permits Halted By Threat Of Brush Fires

With no rain in sight for the area over the weekend, the Ohio Division of Forestry has suspended all burning permits for out-of-doors fires.

The threat of brush and forest fires in the district continues, with a fire index of 45 reported this morning by the fire tower at West Point, and perhaps twice that index expected this afternoon.

Warm and dry weather, with winds, is expected for today and Saturday, with no chance of rain before Monday or Tuesday.

Over 1,300 acres have been burned off in this Ohio forest area since Oct. 1, Mrs. Maureen Lawrence, fire tower observer, reported today. There were 265 areas charred in five blazes Wednesday.

Howard Kenny, weather chief at Columbus, reported the entire state has been extremely short of rain since October.

State officials said they have no plans for canceling the opening of the hunting season Monday.

Fred E. Morr, natural resources director, said at Columbus conditions this year are no worse than they were in 1963 when hunting season was permitted to remain open.

"In 1963, there was no sharp increase in fires when the hunters were in the field," Morr said.

He added that records show hunters detected fires and help-

Crucible Increases Dividend For Quarter

The Crucible Steel Co. of America has raised the quarterly dividend on common from 20 to 30 cents a share, payable Dec. 31 to record Dec. 17.

Joel Hunter, president, said at Pittsburgh: "Crucible should now be able to sustain a larger distribution to shareholders and still retain sufficient earnings to continue necessary improvements to property."

The dividend hike followed October's report that net income for the quarter was $1,628,000 compared to $881,000 for the comparable quarter in 1963.

10-Day Term Given Man In Hit-Skip Case

Wayne E. Coleman, 734 Oak St., was sentenced to a 10-day term in County Jail today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after he admitted running away from a Minerva St. crash Wednesday night that damaged three autos and the tractor of a trailer rig.

Coleman, father of five, pleaded guilty to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident filed by Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice. In addition to the jail sentence, the court ordered Coleman to pay the costs.

Questioned by the court about abandoning his auto at the crash scene, Coleman said: "I just got excited."

Lt. Tice testified that Coleman was "highly intoxicated" when he was taken into custody Thursday night on a warrant in the hit-skip charge.

"I feel you ran away because you had been drinking, not because you were scared," the judge told Coleman. But the defendant denied he was drinking at the time of the collision.

"In my opinion that is the lowest trick a man can pull — to be involved in an accident

Storm Past Police Nets In Saigon

Troops Keep 1,500 From Marching As Planned On Palace

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Buddhist students stormed past riot police today in a demonstration demanding an end to the new civilian government, already sorely beset by a flood disaster and Red guerrillas.

Troops kept the 1,500 demonstrators from marching as planned on Diem Hong palace, where the new government and the High National Council were in session.

Truckloads of troops poured into the city in a show of strength by Premier Tran Van Huong's 10-day-old government. The students then contented themselves with pushing past 40 police and entering the central market. Then leaders told the students to disperse.

Another band of students, armed with sticks and machetes, tried to storm the Ministry of Public Works but were repelled.

The students oppose the appointment of some technicians who served under President Ngo Dinh Diem, ousted and slain last November. They also are angered because the premier told them to stay out of politics.

Aside from political unrest in the capital, the new government is faced with a monumental task of rebuilding 10 flood-ravaged provinces north of Saigon, where more than 5,000 persons have drowned.

Communist guerrillas were reported capitalizing on the floods and moving openly from mountain hideouts into the crippled valley villages.

Refugees from the flood told Vietnamese authorities they had been accosted by Viet Cong men and forced to tear up their identity papers. Widespread elimination of the papers would help the Communists to move with comparative freedom through the disrupted region.

Reliable sources said today the refugees disclosed the Viet Cong movements during interviews in government relief compounds in the coastal resort of Nhatrang and at Quinhon Thursday.

The Saigon government can do little about Viet Cong activity in the flooded regions. Communications are disrupted and highways and railroad beds washed away in an area the size of New Jersey.

"This flood has hurt our communications more than thousands of tons of Viet Cong explosives could have done," a U.S. military adviser said.

Apartment Hit By Fire At Wellsville

Fire caused an estimated $2,300 damage to an apartment house at 319 Broadway in Wellsville Thursday night at 8 while the occupants were away, and Fire Chief Robert Lewis blamed an unidentified arsonist.

The blaze originated in the bedroom of the downstairs apartment of Mrs. Mary Ann Shaw, and spread to the kitchen, causing most of the damage. There was only smoke damage to the upstairs apartment of Miss Wilma McMann.

Chief Lewis said the $1,500 damage to the dwelling was insured, but the $800 loss to the contents was not.

A four-day rain and snow storm in Northern California began tapering off Thursday night. Most of the West Coast was soaked. Other parts of the Northwest lay under snow.

The New Jersey Conservation Department has directed water suppliers to report to state agencies every other day on the water supply so that state can take emergency action when warranted. Officials said there is enough water on hand for 38 days.

Residents in the North Jersey community of Franklin Lakes are borrowing water for bathing. The last measurable rainfall in New Jersey was .01 inch Nov. 5.

Light showers Thursday in New England did little to alleviate the drought, which passed its 195th day. A Massachusetts official estimated that the state's dairy industry and produce farmers alone would suffer $6 million damages.

Officials in Fitchburg, Mass., said the community must have plentiful rain by mid-December or face the prospect of no water at all by February.

New York City has been supplying water from city reservoirs since September to nearby towns which have shortages.

Many Pennsylvania farmers are trucking water for livestock and for winter wheat. Twenty-seven communities are using emergency water supplies. Officials said the forest fire situation is getting worse.

Forty-eight forest fires broke out in Pennsylvania Wednesday, destroying 575 acres. Fires have been averaging 25 a day since the first of the month.

Farmers in the Midwest, who stand to lose about $100 million from expected income, gazed on bone dry fields.

More than 4,500 acres of brush and timber have been scorched in the past two days in Indiana, where the last rain was Oct. 18. The state is 4.46 inches below last year's rainfall.

Illinois struggled through one of it's most disastrous autumns in history. Wheat was stunted, and the southern half of the state fought hundreds of brush and forest fires. Southern Illinois has gone 45 consecutive days without rain, a record.

Heavy rains struck virtually all of Wisconsin Thursday accompanied by wind gusts up to 58 m.p.h.

Oregon was soaked by torrential rainstorms and mountain areas were coated with snow. In Colorado, ski operators were elated by a two-day snowstorm that measured up to a foot.

A solid three days of rain and snow ended the long dry spell in California. Heavy snows in the mountains sent ski areas into high gear.

No Rain Until Monday

Burning Permits Halted By Threat Of Brush Fires

With no rain in sight for the area over the weekend, the Ohio Division of Forestry has suspended all burning permits for out-of-doors fires.

The threat of brush and forest fires in the district continues, with a fire index of 45 reported this morning by the fire tower at West Point, and perhaps twice that index expected this afternoon.

Warm and dry weather, with winds, is expected for today and Saturday, with no chance of rain before Monday or Tuesday.

Over 1,300 acres have been burned off in this Ohio forest area since Oct. 1, Mrs. Maureen Lawrence, fire tower observer, reported today. There were 265 areas charred in five blazes Wednesday.

Howard Kenny, weather chief at Columbus, reported the entire state has been extremely short of rain since October.

State officials said they have no plans for canceling the opening of the hunting season Monday.

Fred E. Morr, natural resources director, said at Columbus conditions this year are no worse than they were in 1963 when hunting season was permitted to remain open.

"In 1963, there was no sharp increase in fires when the hunters were in the field," Morr said.

He added that records show hunters detected fires and help-

Crucible Increases Dividend For Quarter

The Crucible Steel Co. of America has raised the quarterly dividend on common from 20 to 30 cents a share, payable Dec. 31 to record Dec. 17.

Joel Hunter, president, said at Pittsburgh: "Crucible should now be able to sustain a larger distribution to shareholders and still retain sufficient earnings to continue necessary improvements to property."

The dividend hike followed October's report that net income for the quarter was $1,628,000 compared to $881,000 for the comparable quarter in 1963.

10-Day Term Given Man In Hit-Skip Case

Wayne E. Coleman, 734 Oak St., was sentenced to a 10-day term in County Jail today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after he admitted running away from a Minerva St. crash Wednesday night that damaged three autos and the tractor of a trailer rig.

Coleman, father of five, pleaded guilty to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident filed by Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice. In addition to the jail sentence, the court ordered Coleman to pay the costs.

Questioned by the court about abandoning his auto at the crash scene, Coleman said: "I just got excited."

Lt. Tice testified that Coleman was "highly intoxicated" when he was taken into custody Thursday night on a warrant in the hit-skip charge.

"I feel you ran away because you had been drinking, not because you were scared," the judge told Coleman. But the defendant denied he was drinking at the time of the collision.

"In my opinion that is the lowest trick a man can pull — to be involved in an accident

Troops Keep 1,500 From Marching As Planned On Palace

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Buddhist students stormed past riot police today in a demonstration demanding an end to the new civilian government, already sorely beset by a flood disaster and Red guerrillas.

Troops kept the 1,500 demonstrators from marching as planned on Diem Hong palace, where the new government and the High National Council were in session.

Truckloads of troops poured into the city in a show of strength by Premier Tran Van Huong's 10-day-old government. The students then contented themselves with pushing past 40 police and entering the central market. Then leaders told the students to disperse.

Another band of students, armed with sticks and machetes, tried to storm the Ministry of Public Works but were repelled.

The students oppose the appointment of some technicians who served under President Ngo Dinh Diem, ousted and slain last November. They also are angered because the premier told them to stay out of politics.

Aside from political unrest in the capital, the new government is faced with a monumental task of rebuilding 10 flood-ravaged provinces north of Saigon, where more than 5,000 persons have drowned.

Communist guerrillas were reported capitalizing on the floods and moving openly from mountain hideouts into the crippled valley villages.

Refugees from the flood told Vietnamese authorities they had been accosted by Viet Cong men and forced to tear up their identity papers. Widespread elimination of the papers would help the Communists to move with comparative freedom through the disrupted region.

Reliable sources said today the refugees disclosed the Viet Cong movements during interviews in government relief compounds in the coastal resort of Nhatrang and at Quinhon Thursday.

The Saigon government can do little about Viet Cong activity in the flooded regions. Communications are disrupted and highways and railroad beds washed away in an area the size of New Jersey.

"This flood has hurt our communications more than thousands of tons of Viet Cong explosives could have done," a U.S. military adviser said.

$2,300 Blaze Called 'Arson'

Apartment Hit By Fire At Wellsville

Fire caused an estimated $2,300 damage to an apartment house at 319 Broadway in Wellsville Thursday night at 8 while the occupants were away, and Fire Chief Robert Lewis blamed an unidentified arsonist.

The blaze originated in the bedroom of the downstairs apartment of Mrs. Mary Ann Shaw, and spread to the kitchen, causing most of the damage. There was only smoke damage to the upstairs apartment of Miss Wilma McMann.

Chief Lewis said the $1,500 damage to the dwelling was insured, but the $800 loss to the contents was not.

Owner of the building is Rocco Corbisello, 319 Ridge Ave. Chief

Man Charged By Officer In Gun Pointing

A Glenmoor man Thursday pleaded not guilty to pointing a firearm at a Madison Township constable who attempted to arrest the man's father Monday on a charge of drunken driving.

John P. Zoellers of Lyle St. pleaded innocent to the charges before County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine yesterday.

Madison Township Constable held a shotgun on him and on Civil Defense Police Officer Harry Skelton at the home of William P. Zoellers of R. D. 1 Monday morning about 1.

Constable Wathey said he had followed the two men in their car to the elder Zoeller's home, and went to the house to arrest the father for driving while intoxicated.

The younger man obtained a shotgun, and held the two officers until persuaded to give up the weapon, the constable said.

Judge Arfman continued the hearing for both men until next Thursday.

Pool At YMCA Ready For Use

Carl A. Werner, secretary of the YMCA, said use of the swimming pool will resume Saturday with completion of installation of a new filtration system.

The system, costing between $4,000 and $5,000, was installed by several local contractors and was started six weeks ago, when the pool was closed.

It consists of three large tanks containing 8,000 pounds of filter sand and gravel. The system replaces a filter installed in 1914 when the building was erected and which required repairs in 1940. The pool deck has been repainted with a non-slip surface and the room walls also were repainted, Werner said.

A special swim for business women will be held tomorrow night from 8:30 to 10. The Health Club will be open to those with that type membership.

Palestine Girl Hurt In Motorcycle Mishap

EAST PALESTINE — An 18-year-old W. Main St. girl was in "good" condition today at Rochester General Hospital with multiple abrasions of the body suffered in a motorcycle mishap Thursday in Bradys Run Park, Beaver County.

Cherilyn Welsh, daughter of Robert Welsh, 600 W. Main St., was a passenger on a motorcycle driven by Richard Millagan of New Brighton R. D. 2 which skidded on wet pavement about 10:30 p. m. in the park. He was uninjured, according to park police.

and then run away," the judge told Coleman. "Someone in one of those cars might have been injured and left to die."

Police alleged that Coleman's auto was involved in a collision with parked cars owned by Roy M. Quimby of Cadmus St. and Robert Howard of N. Surry Rd. Quimby's car then broke away from a parking spot, drifted 150 feet and hit the parked tractor owned by Kenneth Hescht of Minerva St., officers said.

A 21-year-old motorist accused of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville "superroad" was fined $15 and costs after entering a guilty plea. He is George Stoffel, 1002 Florence St., cited Nov. 4 by the State Highway Patrol.

Fire

Lewis said both occupants were away when the fire broke out. A neighbor turned in the alarm.

"It was definitely a case of arson," Chief Lewis said, declining further comment until after a detailed investigation.

Firemen were called to the Gibbs Rest Home at 10th St. and Riverside Ave. Thursday night at 9:35 to investigate a natural gas conversion burner in the basement. Firemen ordered the heating device shut off until it is repaired.

Making their third run of the day, firemen quelled a small grass fire at 4th St. and Riverside Ave. Thursday night at 10:23. There was no damage and the cause was undetermined.

Cleveland Trio Held For Court

Three Cleveland men were held for Beaver County Court after hearings Thursday on larceny charges before Justice of the Peace Joseph Goehman of Rochester.

The trio, Nathaniel Lett, Robert Coleman and David Gray, were taken into custody Oct. 28 by Midland police after a Beaver Falls motorist told authorities they stole $1,136 from his auto.

The motorist said Coleman and Gray were the only ones in his auto and the only time they were alone was when he got out to put money in a parking meter. The money was to purchase a car for his wife.

The trio claim they won the money in a card game with the motorist.

When picked up by Midland police, Lett was driving another car and had the largest amount of cash although Coleman and Gray also had large sums, authorities said.

Lett and Gray are facing armed robbery charges in Cleveland, authorities said.

Minister Speaks For Kiwanis Club

About 45 attended a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at which the Rev. Rudolph Miller screened colored slides and spoke of a visit to Switzerland earlier this year.

Rev. Miller of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church was introduced by James Walker at the luncheon program at the Travelers Hotel.

Jud English, lieutenant governor, announced a training session for the southern part of his division will be held at Steubenville Tuesday night with a session for the northern part the following week.

Merrill Hall said plans are being made for an interclub meeting at Wellsville Tuesday and at East Palestine Nov. 24.

Hunt Continues For 4 Escapees; Girl In Custody

CLEVELAND (AP) — The search for four prisoners who escpaed from the Cuyahoga County jail continued today, but Sheriff James McGettrick says he has in custody a 17-year-old girl who admitted she smuggled into the jail three hacksaw blades used in the break.

The girl, whom the sheriff refused to identify, was to be charged today in juvenile court. She was arrested late Thursday.

McGettrick also fired a deputy for negligence in the jailbreak Tuesday night. A fifth prisoner who broke out was captured shortly after he was injured when he fell while scrambling down a rope made of bedsheets from the jail's third floor.

The girl smuggled the hacksaw blades into the jail in three giant-sized tubes of toothpaste, the sheriff said. He explained the blades were not detected by a special electronic metal detector. Ends of the blades had been clipped off so they would fit into the tubes.

McGettrick said the girl admitted her part in the jailbreak and then led deputies to the clipped ends of the blades in her west side home. She is the girl friend of Rodger A. Bohn, 21, of Cleveland, the prisoner who was injured.

Ship Rescues Pilot After Crash In Ocean

PATRICK AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — A ship early today rescued a civilian pilot who bobbed for nearly 24 hours in a raft after his single engine plane crashed in the South Atlantic Ocean, the Air Force reported.

Radio reports from the ship said the pilot, Lowell Thompson of Spokane, Wash., was in good condition after his ordeal. The vessel, the S.S. Robin Sherwood, was to take him to Ascension Island, site of a U.S. missile tracking station.

Vote Recount Set Tuesday For Hancock

The job of recounting general election ballots cast in Grant District for constable will commence Tuesday night at 7 at the Courthouse in New Cumberland, Mrs. Mary Stewart, county clerk, announced today.

Three candidates in the four-way race for the two constable posts have asked for recounts, and Mrs. Stewart said she expects the other candidate will also act.

Glen H. Logston, Chester Democrat, filed for a recount Monday after the official canvass showed he lost to J. Carl Durham, Newell Republican, by one vote.

Chester Police Chief Harold Davis, Republican, who led the field and was re-elected to another four-year term as Grant constable, and Durham also asked recounts. Charles Glendenning was the fourth candidate.

The official canvass showed Davis with 2,077 votes; Durham, 1,988; Logston, 1,987 and Glendenning, 1,797. The top two candidates get four-year terms.

Mrs. Stewart and her staff wrapped up the official canvass of other county precincts Thursday night and certified all leading candidates as winners to the secretary of state except in the Grant constable race.

Police alleged that Coleman's auto was involved in a collision with parked cars owned by Roy M. Quimby of Cadmus St. and Robert Howard of N. Surry Rd. Quimby's car then broke away from a parking spot, drifted 150 feet and hit the parked tractor owned by Kenneth Hescht of Minerva St., officers said.

A 21-year-old motorist accused of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville "superroad" was fined $15 and costs after entering a guilty plea. He is George Stoffel, 1002 Florence St., cited Nov. 4 by the State Highway Patrol.

Fire

Lewis said both occupants were away when the fire broke out. A neighbor turned in the alarm.

"It was definitely a case of arson," Chief Lewis said, declining further comment until after a detailed investigation.

Firemen were called to the Gibbs Rest Home at 10th St. and Riverside Ave. Thursday night at 9:35 to investigate a natural gas conversion burner in the basement. Firemen ordered the heating device shut off until it is repaired.

Making their third run of the day, firemen quelled a small grass fire at 4th St. and Riverside Ave. Thursday night at 10:23. There was no damage and the cause was undetermined.

Cleveland Trio Held For Court

Three Cleveland men were held for Beaver County Court after hearings Thursday on larceny charges before Justice of the Peace Joseph Goehman of Rochester.

The trio, Nathaniel Lett, Robert Coleman and David Gray, were taken into custody Oct. 28 by Midland police after a Beaver Falls motorist told authorities they stole $1,136 from his auto.

The motorist said Coleman and Gray were the only ones in his auto and the only time they were alone was when he got out to put money in a parking meter. The money was to purchase a car for his wife.

The trio claim they won the money in a card game with the motorist.

When picked up by Midland police, Lett was driving another car and had the largest amount of cash although Coleman and Gray also had large sums, authorities said.

Lett and Gray are facing armed robbery charges in Cleveland, authorities said.

Minister Speaks For Kiwanis Club

About 45 attended a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at which the Rev. Rudolph Miller screened colored slides and spoke of a visit to Switzerland earlier this year.

He was born in Hundred, W. Va. He was a member of the Chester Church of Christ.

Burial will be in Littleton, W. Va. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Hunt Continues For 4 Escapees; Girl In Custody

CLEVELAND (AP) — The search for four prisoners who escpaed from the Cuyahoga County jail continued today, but Sheriff James McGettrick says he has in custody a 17-year-old girl who admitted she smuggled into the jail three hacksaw blades used in the break.

The girl, whom the sheriff refused to identify, was to be charged today in juvenile court. She was arrested late Thursday.

McGettrick also fired a deputy for negligence in the jailbreak Tuesday night. A fifth prisoner who broke out was captured shortly after he was injured when he fell while scrambling down a rope made of bedsheets from the jail's third floor.

The girl smuggled the hacksaw blades into the jail in three giant-sized tubes of toothpaste, the sheriff said. He explained the blades were not detected by a special electronic metal detector. Ends of the blades had been clipped off so they would fit into the tubes.

McGettrick said the girl admitted her part in the jailbreak and then led deputies to the clipped ends of the blades in her west side home. She is the girl friend of Rodger A. Bohn, 21, of Cleveland, the prisoner who was injured.

Ship Rescues Pilot After Crash In Ocean

PATRICK AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — A ship early today rescued a civilian pilot who bobbed for nearly 24 hours in a raft after his single engine plane crashed in the South Atlantic Ocean, the Air Force reported.

Radio reports from the ship said the pilot, Lowell Thompson of Spokane, Wash., was in good condition after his ordeal. The vessel, the S.S. Robin Sherwood, was to take him to Ascension Island, site of a U.S. missile tracking station.

Vote Recount Set Tuesday For Hancock

The job of recounting general election ballots cast in Grant District for constable will commence Tuesday night at 7 at the Courthouse in New Cumberland, Mrs. Mary Stewart, county clerk, announced today.

Three candidates in the four-way race for the two constable posts have asked for recounts, and Mrs. Stewart said she expects the other candidate will also act.

Glen H. Logston, Chester Democrat, filed for a recount Monday after the official canvass showed he lost to J. Carl Durham, Newell Republican, by one vote.

Chester Police Chief Harold Davis, Republican, who led the field and was re-elected to another four-year term as Grant constable, and Durham also asked recounts. Charles Glendenning was the fourth candidate.

The official canvass showed Davis with 2,077 votes; Durham, 1,988; Logston, 1,987 and Glendenning, 1,797. The top two candidates get four-year terms.

Mrs. Stewart and her staff wrapped up the official canvass of other county precincts Thursday night and certified all leading candidates as winners to the secretary of state except in the Grant constable race.

Investing In Ohio's Future

William L. Coleman, Ohio Democratic chairman, has blasted off against the $275 million capital improvements bond issue proposed by the Rhodes administration.

It appears to us that chairman Coleman's point of view has wobbled so far off course that it should be destroyed in flight before it goes into orbit.

When he says the Rhodes administration is mortgaging the future by getting started as quickly as possible on university projects and state buildings, he could just as easily say the administration is asking Ohio taxpayers to authorize an investment in the future.

It all depends on which way you choose to look at it—and we don't look at it the same way as Mr. Coleman.

The Rhodes administration is trying to update the present and underwrite the future by giving Ohioans a chance to make an investment in the state's facilities—modern highways, public buildings, more educational facilities, etc.

IT IS DOING this without resort to new taxes.

It is counting on normal growth of population and resources to produce enough revenue from taxes already on the books to meet all payments.

It expects to meet future obligations without any financial dislocation. The Rhodes administration is pledged to strict economy in administration of government. But it is committed at the same time to going forward with capital improvements at the will of the people of Ohio. Voters, themselves, must make the decisions to go forward or stand still.

Ohioans became used to this when they authorized capital improvement and highway bonds during the 1950s. It is not recalled that Democrats—or anyone else—voiced opposition then. Nor does Mr. Coleman criticize the mounting deficit financing that goes on year after year in the federal government without any vote of the people.

But . . . politics is politics.

Chairman Coleman apparently thinks he is duty-bound to blast off against the Rhodes administration for proposing capital investments in Ohio's future.

When he talks about pay-as-you-go as if it were the alternative, he really is saying out of the side of his mouth that he resents the Rhodes administration's pledge of no new taxes.

DURING THE DiSalle administration, the Democratic anvil chorus banged away on the urgent necessity of additional taxes all up and down the line. Democrats in Ohio have bogged down mentally on taxation.

The Rhodes administration changed the DiSalle tax tune in a hurry. It paid off the debts and now is beginning to accumulate a surplus.

Chairman Coleman and his party are still banging away on the anvil chorus. We don't believe Ohioans are listening to them now or will be listening if a capital improvement proposal is voted on next May.

We think Ohioans want to invest in their future.

Richard Nixon's Advice

Now it is Richard M. Nixon, most heeded Republican spokesman, using the word "centrist" to denote the Republican party's best hope for the future.

Republican conservatives who feel they were pinched in the squeeze of party factionalism have something to gain by thinking about their party's future on the former vice president's terms.

The landslide vote for President Johnson, says Mr. Nixon, was not a rejection of conservatism. In a great many instances, it was only a rejection of what Sen. Goldwater's candidacy seemed to stand for, which was not conservatism but an amalgam of reaction, racism and extremism.

Mr. Nixon points out what many Republicans have been surmising, that Sen. Goldwater, himself, was not the creator of this image. It was created by people in his group at the expense of moderate and liberal Republicans made to feel they had been deserted and left stranded.

The Republican party now should revert to leadership of the "center," in Mr. Nixon's opinion. But there is no need to be hasty about changing the guard in party headquarters. That should wait until early next year when tempers have cooled, he suggests.

He does not say, though he implies, that there is an inexorable logic of party politics that will exert the ultimate influence in party reorganization. The Republican party's will to survive will remain strong and the terms of survival will be dictated by its survival instincts, not by its party dialectics.

The instinct embraces the entire party —its right wing, its liberal wing and its moderates — its "centrists." The moderates' role will be vital in reorganization. They must provide the leadership to keep the other two factions from trying to destroy each other and in the process most certainly destroying the whole party.

Made For Each Other

The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation's still nebulous idea for buying a supermarket chain packs so much logic it commands attention sympathetic or not.

It would be an economic marriage as ideal as ownership of coal mines by the steel and electric industries. Or perhaps a closer analogy would be ownership of a hotel by a railroad.

The Farm Bureau Federation and a chain of food retailing outlets would be made for each other, as far as mutual self-interest is concerned. Beyond that, of course, there will be many other things to consider, if the idea takes hold.

There is more to it than the obvious connection between raising agricultural commodities and selling them at retail. The motive is not to promote the use of commodities in general but to take counter-measures against the way some commodities are merchandised in particular.

The ultimate motive, as it always is in this matter, is to give producers of agricultural commodities a fatter share of the selling price. It is the age-old skirmish between producer and processor, in which the producer has been lucky to get a draw so far.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: We are not well here and hope you are not the same. What with one thing and another, chiefly a range in temperature that has us sweating one hour and shivering the next, both of us are looking on life with a jaundiced eye.

Our condition is being aggravated by realization that something we've taken pride in about our country isn't coming up to expectations this year.

Maybe you have noticed, too, that there has been an absence of congratulating winners and declaring willingness to abide by the popular decision at the polls last Nov. 3. Your aunt and I do not like this.

It suggests to us that we may be getting into a national mood of irreconcilability about politics. If that happens, it will be bad for all of us.

In the past, when the political contest was over, that was the end of it until the next round. Winners and losers shook hands all around — figuratively — and called it a day.

BUT OUR impression this time is that they're afraid to shake hands because they're afraid of concealed weapons. This is not necessarily true about all the people at the top. I don't know how they actually feel, because they don't take me into their confidence.

But I know that people at the bottom are walking around each other stiff-legged. They're not forgiving and forgetting. They are still grinding their teeth and clenching their fists. I am talking about irreconcilability on both sides.

Samuel Lubell, who does a workmanlike job of learning what people are thinking and getting ready to do in politics, says this country may be heading into one-party domination. That would account for some of the irreconcilability.

If it happened, it wouldn't mean there would be only one party asking for support. It would mean only one party would have a chance to command support. The Whig party was on the scene long after it was unable to command a following. We have had many parties that couldn't win for trying — Progressives, Populists, Prohibition, States Rights, Socialist and even the Communists. All have been on the ballot.

A ONE-PARTY system would not be good for America. We have seen it in operation in the Deep South, and certainly it hasn't been good for people down there.

It has been like that gag about the restaurant that had any kind of pie you wanted, as long as you wanted apple. Or the Ford joke that you could have any color Model T you wanted as long as you wanted black.

We are not giving up. But we would feel better about it if more people were showing signs of reconciliation. Come to think of it, that's what the two-party system is — you win some and you lose some. That's reconciliation.

In a one-party system, you win 'em all.

We expect to be over our virus suffering soon, if that's any comfort for you. Believe me, it is no comfort for us. At our age, you live one day at a time and suffer the same way — one day at a time. Regards to all.

Trouble In The Blackboard Jungle

Embezzling, Misuse Plague Unions

By Victor Riesel

In a confidential report by the Justice Department, it's disclosed that almost $2 million has been embezzled from union treasuries or misused in the past few years. Crooked local labor leaders clutching the loot too tightly, and honest union chiefs attempting to stop the plundering have been killed. Many have been assaulted and their homes shot at by the Mafia's troops.

Victor Riesel

A network of independent "unions" has spread from Manhattan deep into the Midwest—some controlled by notorious Cosa Nostra combines, others by free wheeling racketeers. One phantom labor organization was "owned" by a bookie who also ran a $36 million-a-year gambling ring.

In addition, there has been brutal extortion from small businessmen of sums ranging from $500 to $17,000. Add this to the misuse of $200,000 by one Midwest Temasters group, and the $2 million figure becomes a conservative estimate.

ALL THIS is reported now because the political campaigns have obscured much of what should have been breaking news during the last year or so.

These facts should be made public because now word comes that some regional union chiefs attempted to use the recent congressional election as a club with which to punish those national legislators who voted for the Landrum - Griffin Labor-Management Disclosure and Reporting Act and the Welfare and Pension Plans Disclosure Act. The latter law was passed to protect funds totaling $70 billion in private pension funds.

So intent were some unions on retaliating against the sponsors of these laws, that their plans provoked President Johnson to intervene in behalf of Congressional District in Georgia. The President personally urged the unions not to fight Landrum's re-election.

MANY IGNORED this request and contributed to the general campaign against him, though Mr. Landrum helped put over the poverty legislation which labor wanted so much. But to some union chiefs, first things first.

Many regional labor men fought the backers of such anti-corruption legislation, though the record proves that it was needed and that honest labor leaders had nothing to fear from it.

A confidential report by the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the Justice Department to former Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy disclosed, for example, that by last June 1 "at least 191 persons have been indicted and more than 125 persons have been convicted of embezzling the assets of a labor organization.

"The gamut of the unions which have been victimized in this manner is as widespread as can be imagined. A partial listing of the unions involved would include the American Guild of Variety Artists, Railway and Steamship Clerks, Cement Workers, Warehouse Employes, Retail Clerks Union, Carpenters, Bakery and Confectionery Workers, Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen, Hod Carriers, Woodworkers, Paperhangers, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, United Auto Workers, Plumbers and Steamfitters.

"In all, officers and employes of 54 different unions have been prosecuted. Of the totals given above, 31 of those prosecuted were Teamsters and 24 Teamsters were convicted."

THIS IS no reflection on the national leadership of all the unions mentioned nor on tens of thousands of local officials.

The point being made very emphatically here is the need for the kind of legislation which provides the basis for ferreting out and punishing those looting some of the nation's rank and file. It proves the impossibility of labor's policing 70,000 local unions on a voluntary basis.

Further, it proves the futility of legitimate unions protecting themselves against the mobs. In the heart of New York City, for example, there are 40 racket "dummy" unions with a membership of more than 65,000, according to the embattled and crusading brogue-tongued Mike Mann, regional director, AFL-CIO. He refers to the so-called "membership" as "imprisoned."

THERE ARE hundreds of other such do - it - yourself unions now run by the mob in Long Island, upper New Jersey and points westward, according to Mr. Mann. These outfits are organized as fast as they are dismantled.

Another crusader in the field, Jay Kramer, chairman of the New York State Labor Relations Board, reports that he threw out "502 collective bargaining agreements which froze thousands of workers in economic bondage to 'dummy' unions . . ." in the past few years.

These are figures from just one sector. Multiply them by the broad expanse of our industrial areas. Add to them the cost to the unions, the price of labor peace, extortion from and filers for the privilege of working for a living, and you find that the old crowd is older, grayer but still doing business as usual.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Our thanks to the 1,811 citizens who voted for the students of Beaver Local on Nov. 3.

We appreciate the excellent buildings that are provided. However, buildings alone do not make schools. Good teachers, up-to-date textbooks and the proper atmosphere are the basis for a first-rate education.

We follow the example set by the adults in our community. The way they act and the way they talk affects not only our attitudes and actions but also the type of work we do in school.

Beaver Local has the potential to be one of the top schools in the area. We are willing to do our part in reaching this goal, but we need the backing of every adult in our community.

(The above letter was signed by the following students of Beaver Local High School: Theresa Apple, Marcia Hawkins, Mike Fisher and Mary Purton.)

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We, the students of Beaver Local High School, would like to express our viewpoint pertaining to the events of the past few days concerning the levy.

We readily understand the reason behind these recent demonstrations. We appreciate the concern of these parents. We feel that passage of the levy would be beneficial to all and eliminate the pending problems.

We feel the strong issues which should be considered are not only transportation but better facilities such as new textbooks, retaining qualified teachers, better laboratory equipment, art and industrial art supplies.

Although some of us will graduate, we are deeply concerned about the future of Beaver Local High School. Therefore, we urge passage of the levy to regain and retain our status of the community, academically.

(The above letter is signed by "A group of concerned students": Gary Stutler, Kathy Moore, Greg Gamble, Gerry Bourne and Dave Dailey.)

Through Powell's Eyes

By David Lawrence

Legislator Reviews The Election

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, Democrat, chairman of the House Committee on Education and Labor, stayed away from his district in New York City during the entire campaign except for a few Sundays but was elected anyhow by an overwhelming vote. His prolonged and continuing absence from his district is due to a desire to avoid the service of certain legal papers, as he has been ordered by a state court to pay $46,500 in damages to a Negro woman who won a libel suit against the congressman. Such papers cannot be served on Sunday, but he risks arrest if he enters New York City on others days of the week.

David Lawrence

Raymond Rubin, the attorney who won the libel judgment for his client, is quoted in the press as having said the other day with respect to Rep. Powell's strategy: "I think before long he won't even be permitted to be in New York even on Sundays — except as a resident of the county jail."

But the voters in the Harlem district, which is predominantly Negro, gave Mr. Powell this time a larger plurality than he has obtained in any of his 10 previous elections to Congress.

MR. POWELL issued a lengthy statement the other day about the meaning of the national election. It got scant attention. Yet it reflects a significant trend in American politics today. He said:

"President Johnson called me yesterday afternoon at 4:15 from Texas to congratulate me on winning re-election and I, of course, extended warmest congratulations on his tremendous victory. The President told me I was the first congressman he called and said he had never forgotten that I was the first representative to endorse him for the presidency back in March of 1959."

Mr. Powell revealed that he had campaigned more than 12,000 miles for the Johnson-Humphrey ticket at his own expense and, during the last three weeks of the campaign, spoke in Los Angeles, Chicago, Cleveland, San Francisco, Detroit, Philadelphia and New York City. He added:

"The highly touted and much reported 'white backlash' failed to materialize . . . there developed a new 'lash' — the 'black sidelash.' This was the standing together, side by side, of hundreds of thousands of Negro voters all over America, many of whom voted for the first time, to reject Goldwater racism.

"While the President won 61 per cent of the national popular vote, Negro voters gave him 93 per cent of their national vote. In one Negro ward in Chicago, for example, Goldwater received 2 per cent of the vote. In my own congressional district, Goldwater received only 7 per cent of the vote. . . .

"IN HARLEM, U. S. A., we achieved an important victory. Negroes themselves chose and then proceeded to elect a Negro judge, Darwin Telesford, one of the most able jurists in the state, to the State Supreme Court. I was accused of 'making a deal' with Rep. Charles Buckley to effect Mr. Telesford's nomination. I did. And I intend to make more of such deals and hope other Negro politicans in America do the same thing. . . .

"The Telesford nomination was merely my effort to impress upon officials of my party that Negroes are demanding — and we will get — a more beneficent slice of the political pie when judges, commissionerships and jobs are handed out.

"I might point out that Negroes were largely responsible for Judge Telesford's election, even though the Liberal party, which has developed an unfortunate tendency of not pushing Negroes for major jobs when their population proportion would warrant, failed to endorse him. . . .

"AS NEGROES become increasingly successful in American politics, their intelligent use of the power of political offices to secure more patronage, more jobs and a larger share of the political spoils — just as every minority group in this country has done — will obviate the need for much of the civil rights activity per se.

"I always have been and will continue to be an advocate of peaceful, non - violent demonstrations wherever and whenever their employment can focus attention on the monstrous racial injustices that continue to plague Negroes. . . . This country desperately needs more Negro congressmen, more Negro judges, more Negro state legislators, more Negro city councilmen, more Negro state attorneys general, more Negro heads of state and city departments, more Negro lieutenant governors, more Negro Cabinet members, and we hope in the not too distant future, more Negro U.S. senators.

"These political goals are only achieved in two ways: by registering more Negro voters and educating Negroes to support qualified and outstanding Negro representatives who can deliver for their constituencies."

It's a foregone conclusion that Mr. Powell will be chosen again by the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives to be chairman of the all-important committee which is in charge not only of legislation on the regulation of labor practices but of measures relating to education.

Investing In Ohio's Future

William L. Coleman, Ohio Democratic chairman, has blasted off against the $275 million capital improvements bond issue proposed by the Rhodes administration.

It appears to us that chairman Coleman's point of view has wobbled so far off course that it should be destroyed in flight before it goes into orbit.

When he says the Rhodes administration is mortgaging the future by getting started as quickly as possible on university projects and state buildings, he could just as easily say the administration is asking Ohio taxpayers to authorize an investment in the future.

It all depends on which way you choose to look at it—and we don't look at it the same way as Mr. Coleman.

The Rhodes administration is trying to update the present and underwrite the future by giving Ohioans a chance to make an investment in the state's facilities—modern highways, public buildings, more educational facilities, etc.

IT IS DOING this without resort to new taxes.

It is counting on normal growth of population and resources to produce enough revenue from taxes already on the books to meet all payments.

It expects to meet future obligations without any financial dislocation. The Rhodes administration is pledged to strict economy in administration of government. But it is committed at the same time to going forward with capital improvements at the will of the people of Ohio. Voters, themselves, must make the decisions to go forward or stand still.

Ohioans became used to this when they authorized capital improvement and highway bonds during the 1950s. It is not recalled that Democrats—or anyone else—voiced opposition then. Nor does Mr. Coleman criticize the mounting deficit financing that goes on year after year in the federal government without any vote of the people.

But . . . politics is politics.

Chairman Coleman apparently thinks he is duty-bound to blast off against the Rhodes administration for proposing capital investments in Ohio's future.

When he talks about pay-as-you-go as if it were the alternative, he really is saying out of the side of his mouth that he resents the Rhodes administration's pledge of no new taxes.

DURING THE DiSalle administration, the Democratic anvil chorus banged away on the urgent necessity of additional taxes all up and down the line. Democrats in Ohio have bogged down mentally on taxation.

The Rhodes administration changed the DiSalle tax tune in a hurry. It paid off the debts and now is beginning to accumulate a surplus.

Chairman Coleman and his party are still banging away on the anvil chorus. We don't believe Ohioans are listening to them now or will be listening if a capital improvement proposal is voted on next May.

We think Ohioans want to invest in their future.

Richard Nixon's Advice

Now it is Richard M. Nixon, most heeded Republican spokesman, using the word "centrist" to denote the Republican party's best hope for the future.

Republican conservatives who feel they were pinched in the squeeze of party factionalism have something to gain by thinking about their party's future on the former vice president's terms.

The landslide vote for President Johnson, says Mr. Nixon, was not a rejection of conservatism. In a great many instances, it was only a rejection of what Sen. Goldwater's candidacy seemed to stand for, which was not conservatism but an amalgam of reaction, racism and extremism.

Mr. Nixon points out what many Republicans have been surmising, that Sen. Goldwater, himself, was not the creator of this image. It was created by people in his group at the expense of moderate and liberal Republicans made to feel they had been deserted and left stranded.

The Republican party now should revert to leadership of the "center," in Mr. Nixon's opinion. But there is no need to be hasty about changing the guard in party headquarters. That should wait until early next year when tempers have cooled, he suggests.

He does not say, though he implies, that there is an inexorable logic of party politics that will exert the ultimate influence in party reorganization. The Republican party's will to survive will remain strong and the terms of survival will be dictated by its survival instincts, not by its party dialectics.

The instinct embraces the entire party —its right wing, its liberal wing and its moderates — its "centrists." The moderates' role will be vital in reorganization. They must provide the leadership to keep the other two factions from trying to destroy each other and in the process most certainly destroying the whole party.

Made For Each Other

The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation's still nebulous idea for buying a supermarket chain packs so much logic it commands attention sympathetic or not.

It would be an economic marriage as ideal as ownership of coal mines by the steel and electric industries. Or perhaps a closer analogy would be ownership of a hotel by a railroad.

The Farm Bureau Federation and a chain of food retailing outlets would be made for each other, as far as mutual self-interest is concerned. Beyond that, of course, there will be many other things to consider, if the idea takes hold.

There is more to it than the obvious connection between raising agricultural commodities and selling them at retail. The motive is not to promote the use of commodities in general but to take counter-measures against the way some commodities are merchandised in particular.

The ultimate motive, as it always is in this matter, is to give producers of agricultural commodities a fatter share of the selling price. It is the age-old skirmish between producer and processor, in which the producer has been lucky to get a draw so far.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: We are not well here and hope you are not the same. What with one thing and another, chiefly a range in temperature that has us sweating one hour and shivering the next, both of us are looking on life with a jaundiced eye.

Our condition is being aggravated by realization that something we've taken pride in about our country isn't coming up to expectations this year.

Maybe you have noticed, too, that there has been an absence of congratulating winners and declaring willingness to abide by the popular decision at the polls last Nov. 3. Your aunt and I do not like this.

It suggests to us that we may be getting into a national mood of irreconcilability about politics. If that happens, it will be bad for all of us.

In the past, when the political contest was over, that was the end of it until the next round. Winners and losers shook hands all around — figuratively — and called it a day.

BUT OUR impression this time is that they're afraid to shake hands because they're afraid of concealed weapons. This is not necessarily true about all the people at the top. I don't know how they actually feel, because they don't take me into their confidence.

But I know that people at the bottom are walking around each other stiff-legged. They're not forgiving and forgetting. They are still grinding their teeth and clenching their fists. I am talking about irreconcilability on both sides.

Samuel Lubell, who does a workmanlike job of learning what people are thinking and getting ready to do in politics, says this country may be heading into one-party domination. That would account for some of the irreconcilability.

If it happened, it wouldn't mean there would be only one party asking for support. It would mean only one party would have a chance to command support. The Whig party was on the scene long after it was unable to command a following. We have had many parties that couldn't win for trying — Progressives, Populists, Prohibition, States Rights, Socialist and even the Communists. All have been on the ballot.

A ONE-PARTY system would not be good for America. We have seen it in operation in the Deep South, and certainly it hasn't been good for people down there.

It has been like that gag about the restaurant that had any kind of pie you wanted, as long as you wanted apple. Or the Ford joke that you could have any color Model T you wanted as long as you wanted black.

We are not giving up. But we would feel better about it if more people were showing signs of reconciliation. Come to think of it, that's what the two-party system is — you win some and you lose some. That's reconciliation.

In a one-party system, you win 'em all.

We expect to be over our virus suffering soon, if that's any comfort for you. Believe me, it is no comfort for us. At our age, you live one day at a time and suffer the same way — one day at a time. Regards to all.

Odd Facts

The greatest inland fisheries in the world are situated in Michigan. At least 20 species of fish are marketed in this state, ranging from carp, trout, perch, and pike to lake herring.

Approximately 10,000 tons of carbon steel wire a year go into the manufacture of hairpins and bobby pins, despite the fact that one of these little items weighs less than 1-100 of an ounce.

The earliest animal in history to walk on two legs was the dinosaur, which balanced itself with its long, heavy tail.

Trouble In The Blackboard Jungle

Embezzling, Misuse Plague Unions

By Victor Riesel

In a confidential report by the Justice Department, it's disclosed that almost $2 million has been embezzled from union treasuries or misused in the past few years. Crooked local labor leaders clutching the loot too tightly, and honest union chiefs attempting to stop the plundering have been killed. Many have been assaulted and their homes shot at by the Mafia's troops.

Victor Riesel

A network of independent "unions" has spread from Manhattan deep into the Midwest—some controlled by notorious Cosa Nostra combines, others by free wheeling racketeers. One phantom labor organization was "owned" by a bookie who also ran a $36 million-a-year gambling ring.

In addition, there has been brutal extortion from small businessmen of sums ranging from $500 to $17,000. Add this to the misuse of $200,000 by one Midwest Temasters group, and the $2 million figure becomes a conservative estimate.

ALL THIS is reported now because the political campaigns have obscured much of what should have been breaking news during the last year or so.

These facts should be made public because now word comes that some regional union chiefs attempted to use the recent congressional election as a club with which to punish those national legislators who voted for the Landrum - Griffin Labor-Management Disclosure and Reporting Act and the Welfare and Pension Plans Disclosure Act. The latter law was passed to protect funds totaling $70 billion in private pension funds.

So intent were some unions on retaliating against the sponsors of these laws, that their plans provoked President Johnson to intervene in behalf of Congressional District in Georgia. The President personally urged the unions not to fight Landrum's re-election.

MANY IGNORED this request and contributed to the general campaign against him, though Mr. Landrum helped put over the poverty legislation which labor wanted so much. But to some union chiefs, first things first.

Many regional labor men fought the backers of such anti-corruption legislation, though the record proves that it was needed and that honest labor leaders had nothing to fear from it.

A confidential report by the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the Justice Department to former Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy disclosed, for example, that by last June 1 "at least 191 persons have been indicted and more than 125 persons have been convicted of embezzling the assets of a labor organization.

"The gamut of the unions which have been victimized in this manner is as widespread as can be imagined. A partial listing of the unions involved would include the American Guild of Variety Artists, Railway and Steamship Clerks, Cement Workers, Warehouse Employes, Retail Clerks Union, Carpenters, Bakery and Confectionery Workers, Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen, Hod Carriers, Woodworkers, Paperhangers, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, United Auto Workers, Plumbers and Steamfitters.

"In all, officers and employes of 54 different unions have been prosecuted. Of the totals given above, 31 of those prosecuted were Teamsters and 24 Teamsters were convicted."

THIS IS no reflection on the national leadership of all the unions mentioned nor on tens of thousands of local officials.

The point being made very emphatically here is the need for the kind of legislation which provides the basis for ferreting out and punishing those looting some of the nation's rank and file. It proves the impossibility of labor's policing 70,000 local unions on a voluntary basis.

Further, it proves the futility of legitimate unions protecting themselves against the mobs. In the heart of New York City, for example, there are 40 racket "dummy" unions with a membership of more than 65,000, according to the embattled and crusading brogue-tongued Mike Mann, regional director, AFL-CIO. He refers to the so-called "membership" as "imprisoned."

THERE ARE hundreds of other such do - it - yourself unions now run by the mob in Long Island, upper New Jersey and points westward, according to Mr. Mann. These outfits are organized as fast as they are dismantled.

Another crusader in the field, Jay Kramer, chairman of the New York State Labor Relations Board, reports that he threw out "502 collective bargaining agreements which froze thousands of workers in economic bondage to 'dummy' unions . . ." in the past few years.

These are figures from just one sector. Multiply them by the broad expanse of our industrial areas. Add to them the cost to the unions, the price of labor peace, extortion from and filers for the privilege of working for a living, and you find that the old crowd is older, grayer but still doing business as usual.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Our thanks to the 1,811 citizens who voted for the students of Beaver Local on Nov. 3.

We appreciate the excellent buildings that are provided. However, buildings alone do not make schools. Good teachers, up-to-date textbooks and the proper atmosphere are the basis for a first-rate education.

We follow the example set by the adults in our community. The way they act and the way they talk affects not only our attitudes and actions but also the type of work we do in school.

Beaver Local has the potential to be one of the top schools in the area. We are willing to do our part in reaching this goal, but we need the backing of every adult in our community.

(The above letter was signed by the following students of Beaver Local High School: Theresa Apple, Marcia Hawkins, Mike Fisher and Mary Purton.)

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We, the students of Beaver Local High School, would like to express our viewpoint pertaining to the events of the past few days concerning the levy.

We readily understand the reason behind these recent demonstrations. We appreciate the concern of these parents. We feel that passage of the levy would be beneficial to all and eliminate the pending problems.

We feel the strong issues which should be considered are not only transportation but better facilities such as new textbooks, retaining qualified teachers, better laboratory equipment, art and industrial art supplies.

Although some of us will graduate, we are deeply concerned about the future of Beaver Local High School. Therefore, we urge passage of the levy to regain and retain our status of the community, academically.

(The above letter is signed by "A group of concerned students": Gary Stutler, Kathy Moore, Greg Gamble, Gerry Bourne and Dave Dailey.)

Through Powell's Eyes

By David Lawrence

Legislator Reviews The Election

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, Democrat, chairman of the House Committee on Education and Labor, stayed away from his district in New York City during the entire campaign except for a few Sundays but was elected anyhow by an overwhelming vote. His prolonged and continuing absence from his district is due to a desire to avoid the service of certain legal papers, as he has been ordered by a state court to pay $46,500 in damages to a Negro woman who won a libel suit against the congressman. Such papers cannot be served on Sunday, but he risks arrest if he enters New York City on others days of the week.

David Lawrence

Raymond Rubin, the attorney who won the libel judgment for his client, is quoted in the press as having said the other day with respect to Rep. Powell's strategy: "I think before long he won't even be permitted to be in New York even on Sundays — except as a resident of the county jail."

But the voters in the Harlem district, which is predominantly Negro, gave Mr. Powell this time a larger plurality than he has obtained in any of his 10 previous elections to Congress.

MR. POWELL issued a lengthy statement the other day about the meaning of the national election. It got scant attention. Yet it reflects a significant trend in American politics today. He said:

"President Johnson called me yesterday afternoon at 4:15 from Texas to congratulate me on winning re-election and I, of course, extended warmest congratulations on his tremendous victory. The President told me I was the first congressman he called and said he had never forgotten that I was the first representative to endorse him for the presidency back in March of 1959."

Mr. Powell revealed that he had campaigned more than 12,000 miles for the Johnson-Humphrey ticket at his own expense and, during the last three weeks of the campaign, spoke in Los Angeles, Chicago, Cleveland, San Francisco, Detroit, Philadelphia and New York City. He added:

"The highly touted and much reported 'white backlash' failed to materialize . . . there developed a new 'lash' — the 'black sidelash.' This was the standing together, side by side, of hundreds of thousands of Negro voters all over America, many of whom voted for the first time, to reject Goldwater racism.

"While the President won 61 per cent of the national popular vote, Negro voters gave him 93 per cent of their national vote. In one Negro ward in Chicago, for example, Goldwater received 2 per cent of the vote. In my own congressional district, Goldwater received only 7 per cent of the vote. . . .

"IN HARLEM, U. S. A., we achieved an important victory. Negroes themselves chose and then proceeded to elect a Negro judge, Darwin Telesford, one of the most able jurists in the state, to the State Supreme Court. I was accused of 'making a deal' with Rep. Charles Buckley to effect Mr. Telesford's nomination. I did. And I intend to make more of such deals and hope other Negro politicans in America do the same thing. . . .

"The Telesford nomination was merely my effort to impress upon officials of my party that Negroes are demanding — and we will get — a more beneficent slice of the political pie when judges, commissionerships and jobs are handed out.

"I might point out that Negroes were largely responsible for Judge Telesford's election, even though the Liberal party, which has developed an unfortunate tendency of not pushing Negroes for major jobs when their population proportion would warrant, failed to endorse him. . . .

"AS NEGROES become increasingly successful in American politics, their intelligent use of the power of political offices to secure more patronage, more jobs and a larger share of the political spoils — just as every minority group in this country has done — will obviate the need for much of the civil rights activity per se.

"I always have been and will continue to be an advocate of peaceful, non - violent demonstrations wherever and whenever their employment can focus attention on the monstrous racial injustices that continue to plague Negroes. . . . This country desperately needs more Negro congressmen, more Negro judges, more Negro state legislators, more Negro city councilmen, more Negro state attorneys general, more Negro heads of state and city departments, more Negro lieutenant governors, more Negro Cabinet members, and we hope in the not too distant future, more Negro U.S. senators.

"These political goals are only achieved in two ways: by registering more Negro voters and educating Negroes to support qualified and outstanding Negro representatives who can deliver for their constituencies."

It's a foregone conclusion that Mr. Powell will be chosen again by the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives to be chairman of the all-important committee which is in charge not only of legislation on the regulation of labor practices but of measures relating to education.

80 At Veterans Day Fete

God In Heart Seen Hope For America's Survival

"As long as America keeps God in its heart, no Godless country ever will bury us," Chester Stellar, former Ohio department commander of the American Legion, declared in a Veterans Day address Wednesday night at St. Aloysius School.

Speaking to approximately 80 at the affair sponsored by the Veterans' City Council, Stellar emphasized the nation's ties with God and the flag.

Following Stellar's address, 18 units participated in a parade through the business district, led by the massed colors of various veterans' organizations.

Stellar was introduced by Mayor Merrill D. Hall, who was master of ceremonies and gave a brief welcome address.

Council officers also were introduced by the mayor. They were James Cregar, president, who also is commander of American Legion Post 374 and county Legion commander; Mrs. Mary Wines of the Navy Mothers Club, secretary; Mrs. Helen Jones of the Gold Star Mothers Club, chaplain, and John Ruhe of Post 374, chairman of the flag committee.

The invocation was given by Fr. Carl Nicolay, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

A bouquet was presented Mrs. Stellar.

Cregar also served as marshal for the parade, which included a Navy float, 40 & 8 Society boxcar, Civil Defense duck, fire truck, Midland Sons of American Legion, East Liverpool High School band, several other marching units, and cars with Navy Mothers, Gold Star Mothers and auxiliary representatives.

Citadel League Has CD Program

A special Civil Defense program was presented at the meeting of the Ladies Home League at the Salvation Army Citadel Wednesday afternoon. About 60 attended.

Dennis Smith and Kenneth Myers were guest speakers. Smith stressed the need of trainees for shelter management and also emphasized that the shelters are available for use in natural disasters as well as for fallout.

A movie, "Town of Our Times," was screened and pamphlets were distributed.

Persons interested in learning more about the Civil Defense program may contact Mrs. Edna Sweeney, secretary of the Civil Defense Council, on the second floor of City Hall.

Ashland Oil Reports Record For Earnings

Ashland Oil & Refining Co. today reported record earnings to $2.35 a share on fewer shares ended Sept. 30, equal to $3.08 a share on common stock. The earnings are 31 per cent higher than for any previous year.

Last year, Ashland Oil reported earnings of $18,109,420, equal to $2.35 a share on fewer shares then outstanding.

Sales increased to $394 million compared with $366 million for 1963.

Capital expenditures of $32,046,311 were at the highest level in the company's history. Cash flow increased to $49,568,459 from $39,560,135 last year, the company said in its statement at Ashland, Ky.

Dimes Drive Receives Brotherhood Support

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today gave its endorsement to the annual March of Dimes drive, scheduled in January.

The IBOP said many other AFL-CIO unions also have supported the fund campaign, acting at the suggestion of George Meany, president.

The pottery union received a letter from Meany announcing his endorsement of the drive and adding in part: "Our membership has always demonstrated a deep and direct interest in this program. Support of this activity has been a time-honored tradition of organized labor."

Cincy U. Coeds Balk At Machine To Select Dates

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Coeds at the University of Cincinnati have balked at the idea of having a machine select their partners for a weekend dance.

"I think I'm a better judge of character than any old machine," was a typical comment given by Frances Dick, Cincinnati freshman. "And besides who is going to put the right answers on that questionnaire."

"I have a date Saturday night —and I picked him out myself!" she exclaimed.

Plans were to have students fill out a questionnaire, giving all the pertinent detail about themselves and their ideal partner.

The information was to have been fed into a computer to match "ideal" couples for an "IBM" dance Saturday night in the Student Union.

"But," sighed Anthony Scanapico, Student Union program director, "the girls didn't sign up for the program."

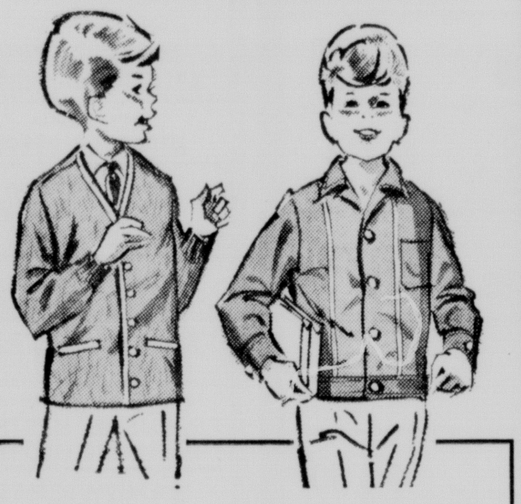

At deadline earlier this week, the dance list was a little top heavy: 60 boys had agreed to let the computer serve as a matchmaker, but only 10 coeds were willing to do so.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will continue to average 10-12 degrees above normal during the next five days. Representative normals now are Cleveland 48-31, Columbus 50-32 and Cincinnati 53-36. Warm over the weekend and early next week, turning cooler Tuesday with little change Wednesday. Rainfall will average about three-tenths of an inch as showers late Monday and Tuesday.

80 At Veterans Day Fete

God In Heart Seen Hope For America's Survival

"As long as America keeps God in its heart, no Godless country ever will bury us," Chester Stellar, former Ohio department commander of the American Legion, declared in a Veterans Day address Wednesday night at St. Aloysius School.

Speaking to approximately 80 at the affair sponsored by the Veterans' City Council, Stellar emphasized the nation's ties with God and the flag.

Following Stellar's address, 18 units participated in a parade through the business district, led by the massed colors of various veterans' organizations.

Stellar was introduced by Mayor Merrill D. Hall, who was master of ceremonies and gave a brief welcome address.

Council officers also were introduced by the mayor. They were James Cregar, president, who also is commander of American Legion Post 374 and county Legion commander; Mrs. Mary Wines of the Navy Mothers Club, secretary; Mrs. Helen Jones of the Gold Star Mothers Club, chaplain, and John Ruhe of Post 374, chairman of the flag committee.

The invocation was given by Fr. Carl Nicolay, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

A bouquet was presented Mrs. Stellar.

Cregar also served as marshal for the parade, which included a Navy float, 40 & 8 Society boxcar, Civil Defense duck, fire truck, Midland Sons of American Legion, East Liverpool High School band, several other marching units, and cars with Navy Mothers, Gold Star Mothers and auxiliary representatives.

Citadel League Has CD Program

A special Civil Defense program was presented at the meeting of the Ladies Home League at the Salvation Army Citadel Wednesday afternoon. About 60 attended.

Dennis Smith and Kenneth Myers were guest speakers. Smith stressed the need of trainees for shelter management and also emphasized that the shelters are available for use in natural disasters as well as for fallout.

A movie, "Town of Our Times," was screened and pamphlets were distributed.

Persons interested in learning more about the Civil Defense program may contact Mrs. Edna Sweeney, secretary of the Civil Defense Council, on the second floor of City Hall.

Ashland Oil Reports Record For Earnings

Ashland Oil & Refining Co. today reported record earnings to $2.35 a share on fewer shares ended Sept. 30, equal to $3.08 a share on common stock. The earnings are 31 per cent higher than for any previous year.

Last year, Ashland Oil reported earnings of $18,109,420, equal to $2.35 a share on fewer shares then outstanding.

Sales increased to $394 million compared with $366 million for 1963.

Capital expenditures of $32,046,311 were at the highest level in the company's history. Cash flow increased to $49,568,459 from $39,560,135 last year, the company said in its statement at Ashland, Ky.

Dimes Drive Receives Brotherhood Support

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today gave its endorsement to the annual March of Dimes drive, scheduled in January.

The IBOP said many other AFL-CIO unions also have supported the fund campaign, acting at the suggestion of George Meany, president.

The pottery union received a letter from Meany announcing his endorsement of the drive and adding in part: "Our membership has always demonstrated a deep and direct interest in this program. Support of this activity has been a time-honored tradition of organized labor."

Cincy U. Coeds Balk At Machine To Select Dates

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Coeds at the University of Cincinnati have balked at the idea of having a machine select their partners for a weekend dance.

"I think I'm a better judge of character than any old machine," was a typical comment given by Frances Dick, Cincinnati freshman. "And besides who is going to put the right answers on that questionnaire."

"I have a date Saturday night —and I picked him out myself!" she exclaimed.

Plans were to have students fill out a questionnaire, giving all the pertinent detail about themselves and their ideal partner.

The information was to have been fed into a computer to match "ideal" couples for an "IBM" dance Saturday night in the Student Union.

"But," sighed Anthony Scanapico, Student Union program director, "the girls didn't sign up for the program."

At deadline earlier this week, the dance list was a little top heavy: 60 boys had agreed to let the computer serve as a matchmaker, but only 10 coeds were willing to do so.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will continue to average 10-12 degrees above normal during the next five days. Representative normals now are Cleveland 48-31, Columbus 50-32 and Cincinnati 53-36. Warm over the weekend and early next week, turning cooler Tuesday with little change Wednesday. Rainfall will average about three-tenths of an inch as showers late Monday and Tuesday.

Midland Chamber Airs Bridge Dedication Plans

The Midland Area Chamber of Commerce discussed plans Wednesday night in conjunction with the Midland - Shippingport Bridge opening Nov. 30 and the Chamber's annual Christmas parade Nov. 28.

The Board of Directors met at the McGeehan Agency.

Anthony Martell, member of the Retail Division, said plans are progressing satisfactorily for a sales promotion, "New Bridge Days Sale," in conjunction with the bridge ceremony.

Regarding Christmas street lighting plans, Guy E. Gengarella, president, reported that trees will be obtained Saturday.

He said all Chamber members and anyone from any Midland civic organization, including Boy Scouts, are invited to help decorate the trees Sunday, beginning at 10 a. m. Volunteers will meet at the McGeehan Agency, 634 Midland Ave.

Mrs. R. D. Paisley, Christmas parade, treats and home lighting contest chairman, reported the annual Christmas parade will be held Saturday, Nov. 28, at 2 p. m. Midland area youth organizations are invited to enter floats or marching units in competition for cash prizes. The Midland and Western Beaver High School Bands will march.

John Reider will be parade chairman and Ted Castelli and William Robertson will be in charge of treats to be given out at the fire station following the parade.

The Chamber has requested Borough Council for permission to use the fire station, an aerial fire truck and Council to pay for the electricity used for Christmas decorations, as in the past.

Mrs. Paisley reported the public is invited to attend the Human Relations Commission's symposium to be held Nov. 20 at 8 p. m. at the Steelworkers' Hall.

The board decided it will send a letter of congratulations to Coach Joe Cochran and the Board of Education for the high school's successful football team which tied for the MAC title in Beaver County. This was the school's first winning season since 1959.

Gengarella appointed a nominating committee, including Ted Castelli, William Orr, Les Pickering, Donald Green and Tom Fannin, to report at the December meeting a slate of 12 nominees. The names will be placed on a ballot later for the election of six directors for two-year terms.

Gengarella reported the Duquesne Light Co. has approved a request of the Chamber for the utility to plant shrubbery around its substation fence at the east end of Midland. The planting will be done at the earliest practical opportunity, the utility said.

IBOP Vice President Gets Civil Rights Post

Leonard Greco of Beaver Falls, seventh vice president of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, has been appointed to represent the union on an AFL-CIO committee on civil rights and equal employment opportunities.

The IBOP said Greco was appointed by the union Executive Board, comprised of the 12 top officers. The committee is part of "a broad based program launched by the AFL-CIO Executive Council to achieve voluntary compliance with the letter and spirit of the Civil Rights Act of 1964," the pottery union said.

Women's Democratic Group Hears Gosney

Don Gosney, chairman of the Columbiana County Democratic Committee, was guest speaker at a meeting of the East Liverpool Women's Democratic Club Thursday night at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex. Mrs. Iris Applegate, president, presided.

Plans were made to attend a demonstration at the Ohio Valley Gas Co. Dec. 8, after which members will assemble at the annex for a Christmas party and gift exchange.

Carl Stacey, clerk of courts, and Sharon Quigley were also guests.

lunch. At that time, the margin of defeat for the levy had been cut by 17 votes. It picked up two more in the two additional precincts that were recounted in the early afternoon.

In addition to O'Hanlon, the recount was supervised by the four members of the board — Carl L. Stacey and Don R. Gosney, both of Columbiana, Atty. James L. McSweeney of Wellsville and Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon.

There were minor changes in the count in nine of the precincts. In the six others, the recount totals and the official canvass figures matched exactly.

The recount showed 128 blank ballots in the 15 precincts — returned unmarked by the voters.

HERE'S A comparison of the original count and the recount figures on the last six precincts tabulated by the board yesterday:

St. Clair Bloomfield: Negative cut one and affirmative unchanged, giving new totals of 105 in favor of the issue and 110 against.

St. Clair Calcutta: Negative cut by two and affirmative unchanged, with the new totals standing at 258 in favor and 221 against.

St. Clair East: Unchanged, with 323 in favor and 255 in opposition.

St. Clair Oakmont: Unchanged, with 128 in favor and 132 against.

St. Clair Southwest: Negative cut two and affirmative unchanged, giving new totals of 116 in favor and 87 opposed.

St. Clair West: No change, with 57 in favor and 47 opposed.

THE CHANGE IN the negative vote resulted principally from the Election Board ruling "no count" on ballots which the precinct staffs had counted against the levy.

The law says a ballot will be counted if the intent of the voter can be determined. Of the ballots tossed out by the board, most were a "double negative" that could not be counted either way.

In the "double negative" ballots, the voters had written the word "No" alongside the printed words: "Against the levy," rather than marking the ballot with an X. The board ruled that such ballots could not be counted for or against the levy.

The recount petition did not cover two precincts that cast only a handful of votes on the issue. They are the Glenmoor Precinct of St. Clair and the Southwest Precinct of Elkrun Township.

2 More Recounts Set On Saturday Morning

Two additional recounts on school issues apparently defeated at the general election Nov. 3 are scheduled for Saturday morning at 10, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today.

A formal application was filed Thursday afternoon for a new tabulation of returns from seven of the 15 precincts in United Local School District, in which a $630,000 building bond issue apparently was rejected by 48 votes.

The official canvass of returns showed 1,016 in favor of the issue and 1,064 opposed. The board had been advised Tuesday by Chester Brautigham, executive head of the district, that a recount would be sought.

Another committee is scheduled to file a petition with the board today asking a recount of one precinct in the Fairfield-Waterford District, in which a $350,000 bond issue apparently was turned down, 739 to 654.

The petition is scheduled to ask a new tabulation of the votes in the West Precinct of Fairfield Township.

He said all department, district and base radio stations have been placed on a 24-hour standby alert.

Last night's showers were so spotty that while downtown streets were wet, the Freeway was dry clear into Calcutta and there was little evidence this morning of any rain — but then today is Friday the 13th.

The five-day forecast indicates about three-tenths of an inch of rain after the weekend and if it does materialize it will be the first substantial rain since Oct. 29.

Saturday will be sunny and warmer after a slight temperature dip tonight to a low of 35 to 40 compared to the downtown low of 55 this morning at 6. The day's high will range into the mid-60's.

McKinley Group Makes Donation

A donation of $100 was made for the children's Christmas party at a meeting of the McKinley Home and School Association Tuesday night.

The program consisted of floral arrangements by Herb Wood and Robert Bosco of the Riverview Florists.

Mrs. Ruth Armstrong reported on the meeting of the City PTA Federation.

Richard Martin, president, presided and also led the flag salute.

The attendance award was won by Miss Dorothy Sloan's combined first and second grade. The next meeting will be held Dec. 8.

Mother Tries To Block Bus At Calcutta

A minor incident of a woman attempting to block a Beaver Local school bus at Calcutta was reported this morning as some mothers continued escorting young children to school.

Three Ohio Highway Patrol cruises and sheriff's deputies were again on hand at Calcutta, Elkton and Rogers for safety protection as children walked to school.

The Board of Education last week eliminated three bus runs and directed children residing within a mile of school to walk to classes. The move was made as part of a general economy effort following defeat of a proposed new 5.4-mill levy Nov. 3.

School officials reported a woman ran in front of a halted bus in Calcutta this morning and refused to get out of the way until the bus driver began to slowly move the vehicle forward.

No further incidents were reported this morning.

Some parents in the Rogers and Calcutta areas have protested the bus cuts, pointing out the hazards for children walking on or close to the highway where there are no sidewalks.

A delegation of parents is expected at the board meeting Monday night. Board members are planning to resubmit the proposed new levy at a special election in January.

A recount of the Nov. 3 results showed the levy was turned down by only 31 votes.

595 Parents Visit Wellsville Schools

A total of 595 parents visited buildings in the Wellsville school system as part of observance of American Education Week, Supt. Lowell Myers reported.

Schools reporting visitors were Garfield, 226; Fairview, 78; McKinley, 18; MacDonald, 218; Junior High, 45, and high school, 10.

50 Visit School

HAMMONDSVILLE — About 50 parents visited Stanton Local High School Thursday in observance of American Education Week. Visits were also made to other buildings in the Stanton system.

5 Motorists Of Area Fined

Five area motorists were fined and a sixth acquitted in traffic hearings held Thursday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine.

John M. McCullough of the Y. & O. Rd. was fined $5 and costs for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Okey Morris of R.D. 3 was fined $15 and costs for crossing a yellow line.

Russell Lightner of West Point was fined $10 and costs for lack of a muffler.

John P. Remish of New Waterford R.D. was found not guilty on a charge of failure to dim his headlights.

DETERGENTS AS HEALTH HAZARDS

Q. Why are detergents more harmful than soap in water pollution?

A. Because most synthetic detergents, unlike soaps, are relatively resistant to the action of bacteria and are therefore difficult to remove from water. Soaps can be removed relatively completely in waste water-treatment plants and are readily broken down (degraded) biologically by bacterial action in streams and soils. On the other hand, only about 50 per cent of detergents are removed by the usual water-treatment process and they persist for long periods in streams because they are resistant to break-down by bacterial action. Foaming is another objectionable feature of water polluted by detergents. In some areas enough detergent carries over into the household water supply to cause tap water to foam. The detergent industry has announced its intention to manufacture detergents devoid of these objectionable features in the future.

"HOW TO LIVE TO BE 100"

Q. A friend of mine recommended the book, "How To Live To Be 100" by Dr. Clement Martin. Would you recommend this book?

A. It is not our function to recommend books or drugs. We would speculate, however, that most of those who read Dr. Martin's book and follow the directions to the letter will not live to be 100.

DETERGENTS AS HEALTH HAZARDS

Q. Why are detergents more harmful than soap in water pollution?

A. Because most synthetic detergents, unlike soaps, are relatively resistant to the action of bacteria and are therefore difficult to remove from water. Soaps can be removed relatively completely in waste water-treatment plants and are readily broken down (degraded) biologically by bacterial action in streams and soils. On the other hand, only about 50 per cent of detergents are removed by the usual water-treatment process and they persist for long periods in streams because they are resistant to break-down by bacterial action. Foaming is another objectionable feature of water polluted by detergents. In some areas enough detergent carries over into the household water supply to cause tap water to foam. The detergent industry has announced its intention to manufacture detergents devoid of these objectionable features in the future.

"HOW TO LIVE TO BE 100"

Q. A friend of mine recommended the book, "How To Live To Be 100" by Dr. Clement Martin. Would you recommend this book?

A. It is not our function to recommend books or drugs. We would speculate, however, that most of those who read Dr. Martin's book and follow the directions to the letter will not live to be 100.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: "I'm a regular reader of your column and was interested in the collection of letters you published on coed pajama parties. The following week you printed a letter about a yard party (the girl is supposed to make two costumes — her own and her boy friend's — out of one yard of material).

I have a new one for you. At this college in Long Island (I'm a junior) the latest fad is a "Pig Party." All the boys in the fraternity pitch in $1. The boy who shows up with the ugliest girl wins the money.

It sounds sort of mean but honestly, Ann, these parties are a million laughs. There are some unseen advantages which should not be overlooked. It gives the homely dames (who otherwise would never get a date) a chance to go out once in a while. Of course they never know why they are asked, so no harm is done. Don't you agree this is a howl? — FRIED SHOES.

-:-

Dear Fried: It's the crummiest stunt I ever heard of. Send me the name of the character who dreamed up this one. I'd like to mail him a get-well card.

Cooks By Book

Dear Ann: My husband told me yesterday that I am an idiot. Why? Because I can't cook or bake anything unless I have a cookbook propped up in front of me.

His mother never owned a cookbook. She just kept tasting to see if it needed a little more of this or a little more of that.

The other evening I was fixing a rib roast. When my husband came into the kitchen and saw the meat thermometer stuck into the roast he almost broke up. He never had seen a meat thermometer before and insisted only a screwball would go for something like that.

Please print my letter, Ann, and let my husband know that people who follow recipes and cooking instructions are not idiots. It would help if you added a line saying you follow recipes, too. Thanks. — CANADIAN COOK.

Dear Cook: Sorry — I'm in you mother-in-law's category and I'm not bragging, but apologizing. I never feel more like a kitchen idiot than when I'm happily ignoring instructions, guessing and tasting — then suddenly things don't seem quite right. So I have to rummage through the trash can to find the box and read the instructions.

Some excellent cooks do not follow recipes but the vast majority of homemakers get better results when they do.

Rash Promise

Dear Ann: I'm secretary to an important executive. These past two years I have met many attractive and interesting men but almost always they are married. I decided long ago not to get mixed up with a married man.

Two weeks ago a charming and unmarried young man came in to see my boss. My boss was in conference so we had a nice 20-minute conversation. He invited me to dinner that evening and we hit it off beautifully. The next day he took me to lunch I mentioned I was searching for a certain record album. He said, "If I find it what do I get?" I replied, "A nice big kiss."

The album arrived yesterday. Mr. Perfect comes back to town next week. Rush your advice. — NEEDLES AND PINS.

Dear Needles: Label this one, "Acknowledge — but no action."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Highway Office Delays Sign Step At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — The State Highway Department Division 11 office in New Philadelphia has advised the Women's Civic Club that it is "too busy" at present to check on the club's request for destination signs.

A letter from Dorian B. Smith, traffic control specialist, said the department will check into the request later. It was read at the meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. David Rogers.

Mrs. Fred A. Rogers, president, presided.

County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge was speaker, discussing "Know Your Money." He was introduced by Mrs. Ernest T. Phillips. Mrs. Judge was a guest.

Refreshments were served 14 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Fred E. Rogers and Mrs. Lewis McCullough.

The annual Christmas program will be held Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Earl Rogers.

150 Attend Midland School's Open House

About 150 parents and guests attended open house at the 7th St. School in Midland Thursday night in observance of American Education Week. In charge of registration were Mrs. Earl Peacock, president; Mrs. James Harriel, vice president; Mrs. Robert Dawson secretary, and Mrs. Matt Hapach, treasurer.

Over 100 attended open house at the 1st St. School Thursday night. Mrs. Joseph Coratto, president, and Mrs. James Morrison, treasurer, were in charge of registration. John Wilson, supervising principal, visited both schools.

Fund Drive Started

CLEVELAND (AP)—A campaign has been started to raise funds for the first phase of John Carroll University's $19.5 million 10-year development program.

Elks Initiate 21 Known As Bailey Class

Twenty-one candidates, named the "Dr. Charles H. Bailey Class" in tribute to the honorary life member, were initiated into Elks Lodge 258 at a ceremony Thursday night.

The ritual was conducted by lodge officers headed by Edward B. Massey, exalted ruler. Another candidate was unable to attend.

A dinner for lodge officers, committee chairmen and John W. Eccleston, district deputy, preceded the meeting.

Eccleston inspected lodge records, officers' proficiency and explained the aims of the Grand Lodge for this year.

Paul Betteridge was elected loyal knight to succeed the late Kenneth M. Seibert.

Contributions were made to the Child Counseling Center and the Blue and White Nonpareil Club.

Joseph W. Chetwynd, chairman of the memorial committee, announced the Crucible Steel Male Chorus will sing Dec. 6 when the lodge holds memorial services for those who have died in the last 71 years and particularly for 12 members who succumbed since last Dec. 1.

Guests at the dinner and meeting were Mike Letzelter of Steubenville Lodge 231, third vice president of the Ohio Elks Association; Gene St. Myer of Martins Ferry Lodge 895; Albert Clark, exalted ruler of Rochester Lodge 283, and M. R. Deming of Salem Lodge 305.

Members of Alliance Lodge 467 will be guests of the lodge following tonight's Alliance-East Liverpool football game.

Because of Thanksgiving, the next lodge meeting will be Dec. 8.

West Point Mothers Not To Demonstrate

WEST POINT — The West Point Mothers Club decided at its meeting Wednesday not to participate in demonstrations at the school over the cutback in bus service. However, members will voice their opinions at the Beaver Local School District Board of Education meeting Monday night.

The club attended class visitation then met at the home of Mrs. Naomi Simms of the Lisbon-Millport Rd.

The annual Christmas party for the school, with Santa Claus to present the gifts, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 23.

A white elephant sale will feature the next meeting Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Simms, following school visitation.

Welfare Department Has 161 In Its Care

LISBON — The number of children under care of the County Welfare Department remained at 161 during October, according to the monthly report of Robert Bycroft, director.

On Oct. 1, the department had 161 children under its care. It added eight during the month, but eight were dismissed as wards.

Beginning Nov. 1, the department had 161 children on its rolls — 110 in boarding homes, eight in the Kyes Memorial Receiving Home, six in institutions 12 in free or wage homes, 15 with relatives and 10 in adoptive homes.

Explosions Rip Boat, Fire Hits 2 Others

CLEVELAND (AP)—A series of explosions hit a dry-docked luxury boat at the river marina on the Cuyahoga River early today and fire spread to two other pleasure boats.

The 60-foot-long drydock was damaged severely. Firemen had the blaze under control within a half hour. They said damage might run to $100,000.

Three or four explosions ripped through the dry-docked boat, a 60-footer, at the marina, which is about a mile southwest of the mouth of the river at Lake Erie. Firemen said half a dozen pleasure boats were in the area, but only the three were believed to have been damaged.

The St. Lawrence River flows through the Canadian province of Quebec.

Fund Appeal Is Made For Foster Group

LISBON — The annual appeal to Columbiana County residents on behalf of the Christmas fund for county foster home children is being made by Robert Bycroft, director of the county Welfare Department.

"Through the generosity of many county contributors last year almost $2,000 was collected. Each child under the department's care received the gift he or she most desired, and with repeated help we hope to make that possible again," Bycroft said.

The goal for this year has been set at $1,600, the same as in 1963.

Bycroft pointed out Christmas is traditionally the day-of-days for children the world over, adding, "These children throughout the county look to you, through us, for what their families should be doing and are not." There are approximately 161 children being cared for in welfare homes.

Checks should be made payable to the Columbiana County Department of Welfare and contents or gift packages should be labeled on the outside. If clothing is contributed, the size should be labeled, Bycroft said.

139 Are Present For Session Of Senior Citizens

One hunred thirty-nine, including four guests, attended a meeting of the Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon at the Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Charles Pritchett presided.

A moment of silent prayer was held for Marlow Russell, first president of the group, who died Thursday. Two hymns also were sung by the chorus under the direction of Mrs. Anna Carr.

The current rummage sale at the Halpate building in East End will continue through next week, Mrs. Eunice Hogenfeld, chairman, said.

The next meeting will be Thursday.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: "I'm a regular reader of your column and was interested in the collection of letters you published on coed pajama parties. The following week you printed a letter about a yard party (the girl is supposed to make two costumes — her own and her boy friend's — out of one yard of material).

I have a new one for you. At this college in Long Island (I'm a junior) the latest fad is a "Pig Party." All the boys in the fraternity pitch in $1. The boy who shows up with the ugliest girl wins the money.

It sounds sort of mean but honestly, Ann, these parties are a million laughs. There are some unseen advantages which should not be overlooked. It gives the homely dames (who otherwise would never get a date) a chance to go out once in a while. Of course they never know why they are asked, so no harm is done. Don't you agree this is a howl? — FRIED SHOES.

-:-

Dear Fried: It's the crummiest stunt I ever heard of. Send me the name of the character who dreamed up this one. I'd like to mail him a get-well card.

Cooks By Book

Dear Ann: My husband told me yesterday that I am an idiot. Why? Because I can't cook or bake anything unless I have a cookbook propped up in front of me.

His mother never owned a cookbook. She just kept tasting to see if it needed a little more of this or a little more of that.

The other evening I was fixing a rib roast. When my husband came into the kitchen and saw the meat thermometer stuck into the roast he almost broke up. He never had seen a meat thermometer before and insisted only a screwball would go for something like that.

Please print my letter, Ann, and let my husband know that people who follow recipes and cooking instructions are not idiots. It would help if you added a line saying you follow recipes, too. Thanks. — CANADIAN COOK.

Dear Cook: Sorry — I'm in you mother-in-law's category and I'm not bragging, but apologizing. I never feel more like a kitchen idiot than when I'm happily ignoring instructions, guessing and tasting — then suddenly things don't seem quite right. So I have to rummage through the trash can to find the box and read the instructions.

Some excellent cooks do not follow recipes but the vast majority of homemakers get better results when they do.

Rash Promise

Dear Ann: I'm secretary to an important executive. These past two years I have met many attractive and interesting men but almost always they are married. I decided long ago not to get mixed up with a married man.

Two weeks ago a charming and unmarried young man came in to see my boss. My boss was in conference so we had a nice 20-minute conversation. He invited me to dinner that evening and we hit it off beautifully. The next day he took me to lunch I mentioned I was searching for a certain record album. He said, "If I find it what do I get?" I replied, "A nice big kiss."

The album arrived yesterday. Mr. Perfect comes back to town next week. Rush your advice. — NEEDLES AND PINS.

Dear Needles: Label this one, "Acknowledge — but no action."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Highway Office Delays Sign Step At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — The State Highway Department Division 11 office in New Philadelphia has advised the Women's Civic Club that it is "too busy" at present to check on the club's request for destination signs.

A letter from Dorian B. Smith, traffic control specialist, said the department will check into the request later. It was read at the meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. David Rogers.

Mrs. Fred A. Rogers, president, presided.

County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge was speaker, discussing "Know Your Money." He was introduced by Mrs. Ernest T. Phillips. Mrs. Judge was a guest.

Refreshments were served 14 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Fred E. Rogers and Mrs. Lewis McCullough.

The annual Christmas program will be held Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Earl Rogers.

150 Attend Midland School's Open House

About 150 parents and guests attended open house at the 7th St. School in Midland Thursday night in observance of American Education Week. In charge of registration were Mrs. Earl Peacock, president; Mrs. James Harriel, vice president; Mrs. Robert Dawson secretary, and Mrs. Matt Hapach, treasurer.

Over 100 attended open house at the 1st St. School Thursday night. Mrs. Joseph Coratto, president, and Mrs. James Morrison, treasurer, were in charge of registration. John Wilson, supervising principal, visited both schools.

Fire Sweeps Drifting Auto

The car of a 17 - year - old Wellsville girl was destroyed by fire which broke out in the motor in the Highlandtown area early today.

The Ohio Highway Patrol said the 1961 coach operated by Jill S. Dysert of 969 Main St., Wellsville, was burned after flames ignited under the hood about 1 a. m.

The girl said she started the motor after the car was parked in front of a home along Wilson Rd., a mile north of Route 39 and 2½ miles west of Route 45.

After the motor stalled and was started again, smoke was noticed and the car stopped, but drifted into a fence. The Highlandtown volunteer fire department was summoned. Officers set the loss at about $1,000.

Fire Sweeps Drifting Auto

The car of a 17 - year - old Wellsville girl was destroyed by fire which broke out in the motor in the Highlandtown area early today.

The Ohio Highway Patrol said the 1961 coach operated by Jill S. Dysert of 969 Main St., Wellsville, was burned after flames ignited under the hood about 1 a. m.

The girl said she started the motor after the car was parked in front of a home along Wilson Rd., a mile north of Route 39 and 2½ miles west of Route 45.

After the motor stalled and was started again, smoke was noticed and the car stopped, but drifted into a fence. The Highlandtown volunteer fire department was summoned. Officers set the loss at about $1,000.

ROME (AP) — "It will be a beautiful memento for this occasion," said Pope Paul VI, handing a 1923 first-folio edition of Shakespeare to an aide, who promptly walked away with it.

It was an embarrassing moment for members of Britain's Royal Stratford Shakespeare company. A member of the company, Dorothy Tutin, had handed the book to the Pope for his blessing.

In the confusion immediately after a special performance given for the Pope and many of the 2,000 prelates attending the Vatican Ecumenical Council, Pope Paul VI mistook the $60,000 book as a gift.

After a hasty explanation by Archbishop John C. Heenan, the folio was returned.

NEW YORK (AP) — Pope Paul VI someday may visit the United States and Canada, says Msgr. Alberto Giovannetti, the Vatican's permanent observer at the United Nations.

Msgr. Giovannetti said Thursday the Roman Catholic pontiff would make such a trip only in connection with "a religious occasion that would justify such a visit."

The National Catholic Welfare Conference has invited Pope Paul to attend an international convocation for world peace in New York next Feb. 18-20. But Msgr. Giovannetti said "I do not think the conference would qualify as such an occasion."

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, V.I. (AP) — A 22-year-old musician, Israel Nunez Feliciano, has been charged with threatening Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey.

Nunez was arraigned Thursday and ordered held in $500 bail for trial.

U.S. Secret Service agents said Nunez was arrested last Friday, the day Humphrey arrived in the Virgin Islands for a vacation.

East End Firm Will Occupy New Quarters

Bell Appliance expects to move about Dec. 1 to the former Rutter Paint Store at 1200 Pennsylvania Ave., Earl Lawrence, owner, announced today.

Lawrence said the store has been located at 508 Mulberry St. since the business was opened early in 1952.

The building is being remodeled for display of major appliances, Lawrence said, with Floyd Cox as the general contractor.

The remodeling will include full-size display windows in the front.

$2,980 Low Offer

Midland Council Opens Rink Bids

Bids for construction of an ice skating rink in the Midland Heights area were opened by Midland Council Thursday night and Paul Muschweck of Industry apparently submitted the low offer of $2,980.

—:—

OTHERS BIDDING on the project were Daniel Borato, also of Industry, George Studen of Midland and Wayne Shoup of New Brighton.

Bids were also received from Muschweck, Borato, Studen and Shoup to construct a roof over the rink, but they were referred to committee for further study after it was decided that all bids were more than had been anticipated for the job.

On motion of Councilman Joe D'Alesio, the borough engineer, R. E. Steebner, was instructed to accept an offer of the Atlantic Refining Co. to sell a 12-foot strip of land at 12th St. for $2,500 for use in establishing a four-lane entrance to the Crucible Steel Co.

—:—

THE WIDER entrance will be constructed in an effort to ease the traffic congestion in the borough, which occurs daily with the changing of shifts at the plant.

In other action, Council passed a resolution officially establishing a permanent Human Relations Commission.

The commission was originally proposed in the summer of 1963 and established that September by Mayor Eli Corak.

The commission will consist of a permanent body of 15 members, each to be appointed by the mayor. He will appoint the permanent chairman, with the commission to select the vice chairman and secretary.

—:—

ITS purpose will be to guarantee equal rights for all, create good will, lessen tensions, improve group relations in the borough and foster mutual understanding and co-operation between persons of all races, creeds, color and national origins.

James L. Mullen, past director of Steelworkers District 20, has been serving as chairman.

Council received a letter from J. G. Gill, manager of Crucible Steel's Midland Works, in which he listed several steps the firm has taken for air polution abatement in the community.

He said other steps are being planned and that air pollution control equipment is provided in the present expansion plans at the plant, including a proposed new facility in the open hearth furnace operations, if approved by the Board of Directors.

—:—

A REQUEST of the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce was granted to use the large fire truck in the annual Christmas parade Nov. 28 and to use the fire station to distribute gifts to children. The borough will pay the cost of the Christmas lighting as in the past.

The Pennsylvania Department of Justice informed Council that it had conducted an inspection of the jail facilities Oct. 22, and had found all operations met state standards.

Massa Engineers, Inc., of Beaver Falls asked that it be considered when Council selects a borough consulting engineer for the coming year.

Charles P. Henderson, chairman, forwarded an invitation to Councilmen to attend the dedication of the new Midland-Shippingport Bridge Nov. 30 at 10 a.m.

—:—

THE SECRETARY, Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, was requested to forward a letter of congratulations to head football coach, Joe Cochran, and staff for their successful season.

Steebner was instructed to ask the Duquesne Light Co. to clean the street lights.

William Vinovich, president, reported on the conference of the Institute on Local Government Responsibility In Racial and Community Tensions which he and Councilmen Ray Presuitti and Joseph Hibbard attended in Hershey Sunday and Monday.

The officers' reports were accepted and bills were ordered paid. Vinovich presided. The next meeting will be Nov. 25.

Chester Man Averts Crash But Hits Pole

A 33-year-old Chester driver successfully avoided a crash with two oncoming cars late Thursday night on Harvey Ave. near the Ohio - Pennsylvania line, but his auto then rammed a utility pole, police reported.

The 1957 sedan of Stanley D. Riggs of 3rd St. Ext. hit the pole at 10:54 about 180 feet west of the state line, officers said. The left front fender and tire were damaged.

Riggs told Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr. he was driving east about 35 miles an hour when he saw two westbound cars approaching side by side as one driver attempted to pass another. Riggs said he swerved to the right to avoid a collision, hitting the pole.

Firemen were called at 11:20 p. m. to standby at the crash scene because of leaking gasoline and fallen power lines.

A sticking gas pedal was blamed for another crash Thursday at 3:55 p. m. on Jefferson St. at Summit Ln., police said.

Harry Gordon, 74, of 339 Dunn St., Chester, was attempting to pull from a parking space on Jefferson St. when his 1964 sedan struck the rear of a parked 1957 auto owned by Richard Hall, 1257 Erie St., shoving it onto the sidewalk, officers said.

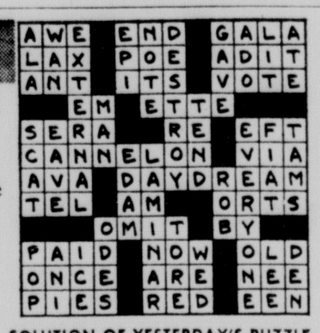

Gordon told police he believes the gas pedal of his car stuck. The collision damaged the entire rear of Hall's car and the right front fender, hood and bumper of Gordon's auto.

Ex-Rail Executive Claimed In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Arthur B. Johnson, vice president of the old Erie Railroad, now the Erie-Lackawanna, from 1946 to 1951, died Thursday in Huron Road Hospital. He was 78.

Johnson, a native of West Pittson, Pa., started with the Erie in 1916 as a district land and tax agent. He was a former director of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas Seal Campaign Will Be Opened On Monday

Some 25,000 countians will receive Christmas Seals in the mail as the Columbiana County Public Health League launches its campaign Monday for $30,000, according to Leo C. Lawrence, president. The 1964 campaign is scheduled to run through Dec. 31.

"Tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases have been the focus of unusual public attention this year, new scientific findings on various fronts re-emphasize the importance of these ailments as a continuing public health problem.

"In order that we may be able to deal effectively with the problem during the coming year, it is essential that the 1964 Christmas Seal campaign fulfill its goal.

"We are hopeful that the community will respond to the Christmas Seal campaign in a way that will enable us to carry on our program as planned," Lawrence commented.

Mrs. Lillian Schroeder, executive secretary, township chairmen and goals include:

Butler and Knox — Mrs. Roy Thornton, Beloit R.D. 2, $1,100; Fairfield — Mark Klingensmith, Union Banking Co., Columbiana, $3,000; Hanover — Mrs. John Lindesmith, Farmers National Bank, Hanoverton, $700.

Deadline's Saturday For Police Job Exam

The Municipal Civil Service Commission reminded today that the deadline falls Saturday noon for applications for an examination it will conduct Nov. 30 at 8 p. m. at City Hall to draw up a new eligiblity list for appointments to the police department.

No applications had been filed by Thursday afternoon.

Although one post has been filled, the department still has a vacancy. William Copestick has been appointed a patrolman, effective next Monday, to replace Paul E. Carter, resigned. Another patrolman's job was left open when Kenneth E. Mooney was advanced to lieutenant to succeed Clyde W. Boso, retired.

Dieting Isn't The Only Answer

Diet alone as a means of reducing is a halfway measure. Reason it through: You don't want the same figure flaws on a smaller scale.

Ida Jean Kain

Nor do you want to be flabby at the finish. Your goal is a trimmer, more shapely figure. A small amount of regular exercise can make all the difference.

—:—

WHAT KIND of exercise? Take your choice. You can't beat walking in the fresh air for general conditioning. But for shaping up and slimming off inches, precision calisthenics gurantee results. Hold the muscular contraction for a slow count of six so as to increase the intensity of the action. This is the principal back of isometric contraction.

Exercise normalizes. Perhaps the best way to explain the rewards of exercise would be to use three models of varying weights. . .one overweight generally, and one normal weight whose figure has lost its clearly defined lines. The third model is underweight.

With the same exercise routine, but with calories adjusted to individual requirements, the overweight will improve her measurements, the underweight will develop and the normal weight will become trim and shapely. All three models will feel more alive, have more bounce.

The muscles most in need of exercise are those smack in the middle of the figure. The problem is not always one of excess fat on the abdomen, but toneless muscles. It's lack of tone in these important muscles that cause normal weights and underweights to complain of a protruding stomach. With the overweight, the muscles in this area become interlarded with fat. . .and spread. The reducer should certainly exercise to restore tone to the brace of middle muscles. Otherwise as fat is lost, the organs would tend to sag, and the results is a dragged down feeling.

EASE INTO exercise with this abdominal flattener: Position: Lie on back on floor, knees flexed, soles of feet flat on floor. Have arms out at shoulder level, elbows bent, forearms back on floor. This arms position squares the shoulders beautifully.

Action: Pull up-and-in strongly with the abdominal muscles, pressing small of back flat against floor. Hold the contraction for six or eight seconds. Breathe freely. . .do not hold your breath. Relax. Repeat 3 to 5 times. The up-pull tones the long front muscles, the in-pull involves the side-front abdominals.

Regardless of your weight, get the exercise habit. It's a tonic.

Midland Council Opens Rink Bids

Bids for construction of an ice skating rink in the Midland Heights area were opened by Midland Council Thursday night and Paul Muschweck of Industry apparently submitted the low offer of $2,980.

OTHERS BIDDING on the project were Daniel Borato, also of Industry, George Studen of Midland and Wayne Shoup of New Brighton.

Bids were also received from Muschweck, Borato, Studen and Shoup to construct a roof over the rink, but they were referred to committee for further study after it was decided that all bids were more than had been anticipated for the job.

On motion of Councilman Joe D'Alesio, the borough engineer, R. E. Steebner, was instructed to accept an offer of the Atlantic Refining Co. to sell a 12-foot strip of land at 12th St. for $2,500 for use in establishing a four-lane entrance to the Crucible Steel Co.

—:—

THE WIDER entrance will be constructed in an effort to ease the traffic congestion in the borough, which occurs daily with the changing of shifts at the plant.

In other action, Council passed a resolution officially establishing a permanent Human Relations Commission.

The commission was originally proposed in the summer of 1963 and established that September by Mayor Eli Corak.

The commission will consist of a permanent body of 15 members, each to be appointed by the mayor. He will appoint the permanent chairman, with the commission to select the vice chairman and secretary.

—:—

ITS purpose will be to guarantee equal rights for all, create good will, lessen tensions, improve group relations in the borough and foster mutual understanding and co-operation between persons of all races, creeds, color and national origins.

James L. Mullen, past director of Steelworkers District 20, has been serving as chairman.

Council received a letter from J. G. Gill, manager of Crucible Steel's Midland Works, in which he listed several steps the firm has taken for air polution abatement in the community.

He said other steps are being planned and that air pollution control equipment is provided in the present expansion plans at the plant, including a proposed new facility in the open hearth furnace operations, if approved by the Board of Directors.

A REQUEST of the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce was granted to use the large fire truck in the annual Christmas parade Nov. 28 and to use the fire station to distribute gifts to children. The borough will pay the cost of the Christmas lighting as in the past.

The Pennsylvania Department of Justice informed Council that it had conducted an inspection of the jail facilities Oct. 22, and had found all operations met state standards.

Massa Engineers, Inc., of Beaver Falls asked that it be considered when Council selects a borough consulting engineer for the coming year.

Charles P. Henderson, chairman, forwarded an invitation to Councilmen to attend the dedication of the new Midland-Shippingport Bridge Nov. 30 at 10 a.m.

—:—

THE SECRETARY, Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, was requested to forward a letter of congratulations to head football coach, Joe Cochran, and staff for their successful season.

Steebner was instructed to ask the Duquesne Light Co. to clean the street lights.

William Vinovich, president, reported on the conference of the Institute on Local Government Responsibility In Racial and Community Tensions which he and Councilmen Ray Presuitti and Joseph Hibbard attended in Hershey Sunday and Monday.

The officers' reports were accepted and bills were ordered paid. Vinovich presided. The next meeting will be Nov. 25.

Chester Man Averts Crash But Hits Pole

A 33-year-old Chester driver successfully avoided a crash with two oncoming cars late Thursday night on Harvey Ave. near the Ohio - Pennsylvania line, but his auto then rammed a utility pole, police reported.

The 1957 sedan of Stanley D. Riggs of 3rd St. Ext. hit the pole at 10:54 about 180 feet west of the state line, officers said. The left front fender and tire were damaged.

Riggs told Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr. he was driving east about 35 miles an hour when he saw two westbound cars approaching side by side as one driver attempted to pass another. Riggs said he swerved to the right to avoid a collision, hitting the pole.

Firemen were called at 11:20 p. m. to standby at the crash scene because of leaking gasoline and fallen power lines.

A sticking gas pedal was blamed for another crash Thursday at 3:55 p. m. on Jefferson St. at Summit Ln., police said.

Harry Gordon, 74, of 339 Dunn St., Chester, was attempting to pull from a parking space on Jefferson St. when his 1964 sedan struck the rear of a parked 1957 auto owned by Richard Hall, 1257 Erie St., shoving it onto the sidewalk, officers said.

Gordon told police he believes the gas pedal of his car stuck. The collision damaged the entire rear of Hall's car and the right front fender, hood and bumper of Gordon's auto.

Ex-Rail Executive Claimed In Cleveland

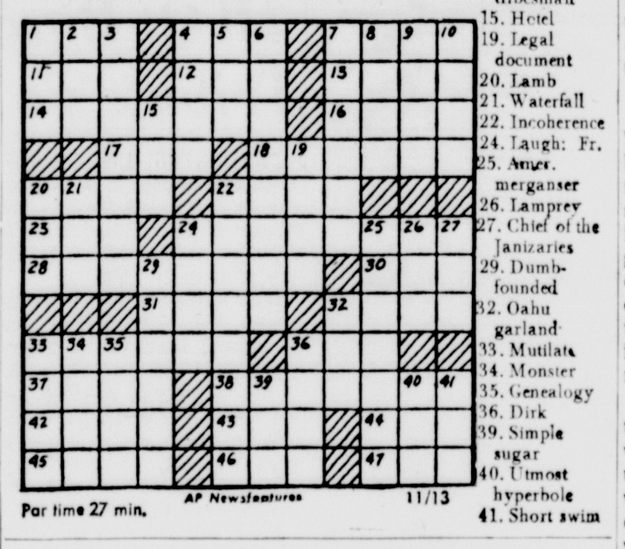

CLEVELAND (AP) — Arthur B. Johnson, vice president of the old Erie Railroad, now the Erie-Lackawanna, from 1946 to 1951, died Thursday in Huron Road Hospital. He was 78.

Johnson, a native of West Pittson, Pa., started with the Erie in 1916 as a district land and tax agent. He was a former director of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas Seal Campaign Will Be Opened On Monday

Some 25,000 countians will receive Christmas Seals in the mail as the Columbiana County Public Health League launches its campaign Monday for $30,000, according to Leo C. Lawrence, president. The 1964 campaign is scheduled to run through Dec. 31.

"Tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases have been the focus of unusual public attention this year, new scientific findings on various fronts reemphasize the importance of these ailments as a continuing public health problem.

"In order that we may be able to deal effectively with the problem during the coming year, it is essential that the 1964 Christmas Seal campaign fulfill its goal.

"We are hopeful that the community will respond to the Christmas Seal campaign in a way that will enable us to carry on our program as planned," Lawrence commented.

Potters Out To Snap Aviators' Jinx

ELHS Ends Best Season Since '56

The East Liverpool Potters, win or lose tonight, will complete their finest season in seven years when they play host to highly regarded Alliance at Patterson Field. Kickoff is 7:45.

Coach Bob McNea has guided the Potters to a 7-1-1 record and that's the best mark since the 1956 team coached by Lou Venditti finished 8-2.

—:—

THE 1956 squad also was the last team to defeat Alliance, which has won the last seven from the Potters including a 36-12 victory last season.

Coach Mel Knowlton's Aviators, even with a 4-5 record, rate a slight edge over the Potters in the season's grand finale.

Alliance has lost to the best in the state including Massillon and Canton McKinley which defeated the Aviators by margins of three touchdowns.

TONIGHT'S game also will be the last for 22 East Liverpool seniors some of whom ended their grid career earlier in the season with injuries.

McNea has managed to patch up the Potters in almost every game this season and has succeeded to the point of winning seven games while losing only to Steubenville Central and playing a tie with New Philadelphia.

EAST LIVERPOOL will carry a five-game winning streak into tonight's game, which matches last season's win string when the Potters captured their first five games of the season.

Alliance will bring another fast club to town and containing the Aviators' speed will be the big problem facing the Potters.

ALLIANCE lost its regular quarterback Bruce Robb in the fourth game of the season and this spot appears to be their weakest at the time.

The Aviators have good backfield material in halfbacks Gary Rasile, considered the best all-around back along with Carl Dunn and Ron Haskins and fullback Earl Cundiff.

The Sports Bench

By BOB DUFFY
Sports Editor

Massillon Picked Here . . .

The game of the year in Ohio high school circles comes on the final day of the season when Massillon tackles Canton McKinley.

For the first time since 1956, when both teams were undefeated going into their traditional game, the battle will produce a true champion. Both are undefeated and ranked 1-2 in the state poll.

How can you select the winner of this game? We talked to Ed McGraw, sports editor of the Alliance Review and he feels the nod should go to Massillon.

Ed should be a good judge since Alliance played both teams and was defeated by almost the same margin of three TD's. Alliance lost to Massillon 26-8 and was beaten by McKinley 28-6.

However, DeGraw claims Alliance outplayed McKinley in the second half without the services of its No. 1 quarterback, Bruce Robb. Rob did play against Massillon, being injured in the last 17 seconds.

We saw Massillon defeat Niles at Akron earlier this season and the Tigers looked mighty good after they got over the first-quarter jitters.

We'll take Massillon to win the state title, with the Bulldogs putting up a ferocious fight.

★ ★ ★

ROGER PRICE, the faculty manager at Massillon, told us the game has been a sellout for three weeks and last week the ticket office had sent back more than 3,000 requests for tickets.

Alliance Favored . . .

THE DISTRICT football teams come out for the final bell tonight and we'll be taking our last stab in the dark when it comes to selecting the winners.

Alliance must rate the edge against East Liverpool, even though we hope the Potters pull a surprise.

Coach Bob McNea's team has been hit by injuries and McNea has almost run out of adequate replacements. This was shown in last week's Salem game when the Quakers had little trouble running through the Blue and White.

Alliance will field a strong backfield, a step or two faster than the Potters. With this in mind, we'll take the Aviators by two touchdowns.

In other grid battles tonight, Wintersville should finish a successful season over Oak Glen by a three-touchdown margin.

Although we would like to see Bud Bucher end his career at Lisbon on a winning note, we have to stick with United in this one, with Gene Metzgar & Co. after their sixth win.

East Palestine rates the edge over Columbiana and Leetonia should conclude its season in the victory column against West Branch.

Stanton Local shoots for its seventh win at Smithfield and should get it, while Toronto rates a big edge over Southern Local and Salem should get past Berea.

Only one game remains on Saturday when Beaver Local visits Wellsville. With the Beavers hobbled from injuries, it looks like the Tigers in this one by a couple of TD's.

Timeout For The Band . . .

IT'S ALWAYS halftime when the East Liverpool High School band performs, so we'll take time out now to pass along our congratulations to a fine group of musicians and their outstanding director, Vincent Maola, who has worked hard to create a fine 160-piece marching unit.

IN A RECENT intersquad game at Cincinnati, Ken Cunningham, the ex-Potter court whiz, made 11 of 13 field goal attempts and finished the game with 22 points.

Cunningham is starting his final year with the Bearcats.

Could Be Stumbling Block

Spartans Will Try For 9th Straight Over Notre Dame

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duffy Daughtery isn't trying to get Notre Dame's Irish up, honest he isn't. It just happens that Daugherty coaches the Michigan State football team that just happens to be the main stumbling block on the road to a perfect season for the Irish.

That makes Daugherty public enemy number one around South Bend, Ind. and the affable little Spartan coach is enjoying every minute of it as he readies his club for their shot at the top-ranked Irish Saturday.

Just to stir things up a bit, Daugherty phoned Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian and told him: "Ara, we're going to do you a favor Saturday. We're going to knock you off and take you off the spot."

"You know if you got through unbeaten your first season, you'll be in trouble. Your red-hot alumni will be expecting it every year. So if you lose a couple, they'll be yelling for your scalp. But we'll fix that."

State has fixed Notre Dame pretty well over the last few years with the Irish showing just one victory in the last 12 meetings. Daugherty's clubs have won eight in a row. Mildly stated, the Irish are tired of being pushed around by MSU.

Michigan State lost three of their first four games but has come on strong with three straight victories capped by a 21-7 victory over Purdue last Saturday which knocked the Boilermakers out of a tie for the Big Ten lead.

Notre Dame is 7-0 but had a scare a week ago when it just eked out a 17-15 victory against underdog Pitt.

That close call makes the Irish suspect. Only two weeks ago, Ohio State, then No. 1, slipped by Iowa 21-19. Along came unranked Penn State to knock off the Buckeyes 27-0 last Saturday and drop them to seventh place in the poll. Ohio State goes after some of its lost prestige at home Saturday against Northwestern.

The electronic technique works much like television's videotaping process providing immediate runbacks.

Alabama, second-ranked and 8-0 for the season, battles No. 10 Georgia Tech in the only game involving two Top Ten teams. Third-ranked Arkansas, also 8-0, meets Southern Methodist; No. 5 Texas is at Texas Christian; Michigan, sixth-ranked, plays at Iowa; No. 8 Oregon State visits Stanford, and Louisiana State, No. 9, hosts Mississippi State.

All Of Baseball Sends Tribute To Hutchinson

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Tributes continued to pour in today to Fred Hutchinson, the former Cincinnati Red manager, who died of cancer at the age of 45 early Thursday.

Dick Sisler, the man who replaced Hutchinson when the grim-faced manager no longer was able to run the Reds, said: "I am very deeply saddened by the loss of a good friend. Baseball has lost a good man and a good manager. We were very close to his family and our thoughts are with them today."

Sisler will serve as one of 12 honorary pallbearers at Hutchinson's funeral services at Rosen Memorial Church on Anna Maria Island Saturday. Burial will be early next week in Renton, Wash.

Other pallbearers will be William O. DeWitt, president of the Reds; Cincinnati coaches Jim Turner and Reggie Otero; Walter (Hoot) Evers, a former teammate of Hutchinson's and currently vice president of the Cleveland Indians and George (Birdie) Tebbetts, Cleveland manager.

Also Bill McKechnie Sr., former major league player and manager; his son Bill Jr., owner of the Atlanta baseball team; Hank Greenberg, former big league player and executive; Dr. George Ballou; J. D. Webb and Bennie Scanio.

Commissioner Ford C. Frick released the following statement in New York.

"All of us in baseball will feel deeply the loss of Fred Hutchinson, both as a baseball figure and as a man. He brought credit to baseball at all times both on and off the field. I am proud that I was his friend."

Midland Owner Sees Dog Sweep Honors In Shows

Carmen Cananzi's Ellwyn Prince Tuffy scooped up honors in four recent shows and pushed its best of breed total to 52.

The Midland owner saw Tuffy take best of breed and third in the variety toy group at Springfield and repeated as best of breed and second in the toy group at Canfield.

Last weekend at two shows in Schenectady, N.Y., Tuffy finished best of breed in both outings and was second in the toy group.

Season Cage Tickets Go On Sale At Midland

The advance sale of season basketball tickets at Midland has opened, Hank Kuzma, athletic director, announced.

The Leopards open their season on Saturday, Nov. 28 at home against Montour.

Season books are $14 for 13 home games which includes the Midland Invitational tournament on Dec. 28 and 29.

In that tournament, McKeesport and Ford City will play in the first game with Duquesne and Midland in the second contest.

All 1963-64 season book holders will be given first choice on their reserve seats, providing they pick them up before the first home game.

Kuzma said that anyone who purchases a season book but works three shifts in the steel mill, may exchange the un-used ticket for some other game on the home schedule.

All ticket requests should be mailed to the Midland High School Athletic Department.

Ohio Team Ousted

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — The Ohio team of Robert Bell and John Jacob has been eliminated from the World Senior Amateur Four Ball Golf Tournament.

Bell, of Worthington, and Jacob, of Canton, were defeated, 1 - up, in the second round Thursday by Bruce McCormick of Temple City, Calif., and Bud McKinney of Dallas, Tex.

Potters Out To Snap Aviators' Jinx

ELHS Ends Best Season Since '56

The East Liverpool Potters, win or lose tonight, will complete their finest season in seven years when they play host to highly regarded Alliance at Patterson Field. Kickoff is 7:45.

Coach Bob McNea has guided the Potters to a 7-1-1 record and that's the best mark since the 1956 team coached by Lou Venditti finished 8-2.

THE 1956 squad also was the last team to defeat Alliance, which has won the last seven from the Potters including a 36-12 victory last season.

Coach Mel Knowlton's Aviators, even with a 4-5 record, rate a slight edge over the Potters in the season's grand finale.

Alliance has lost to the best in the state including Massillon and Canton McKinley which defeated the Aviators by margins of three touchdowns.

TONIGHT'S game also will be the last for 22 East Liverpool seniors some of whom ended their grid career earlier in the season with injuries.

McNea has managed to patch up the Potters in almost every game this season and has succeeded to the point of winning seven games while losing only to Steubenville Central and playing a tie with New Philadelphia.

EAST LIVERPOOL will carry a five-game winning streak into tonight's game, which matches last season's win string when the Potters captured their first five games of the season.

Alliance will bring another fast club to town and containing the Aviators' speed will be the big problem facing the Potters.

ALLIANCE lost its regular quarterback Bruce Robb in the fourth game of the season and this spot appears to be their weakest at the time.

The Aviators have good backfield material in halfbacks Gary Rasile, considered the best all-around back along with Carl Dunn and Ron Haskins and fullback Earl Cundiff.

The Sports Bench

Massillon Picked Here . . .

The game of the year in Ohio high school circles comes on the final day of the season when Massillon tackles Canton McKinley.

For the first time since 1956, when both teams were undefeated going into their traditional game, the battle will produce a true champion. Both are undefeated and ranked 1-2 in the state poll.

How can you select the winner of this game? We talked to Ed McGraw, sports editor of the Alliance Review and he feels the nod should go to Massillon.

Ed should be a good judge since Alliance played both teams and was defeated by almost the same margin of three TD's. Alliance lost to Massillon 26-8 and was beaten by McKinley 28-6.

However, DeGraw claims Alliance outplayed McKinley in the second half without the services of its No. 1 quarterback, Bruce Robb. Rob did play against Massillon, being injured in the last 17 seconds.

We saw Massillon defeat Niles at Akron earlier this season and the Tigers looked mighty good after they got over the first-quarter jitters.

We'll take Massillon to win the state title, with the Bulldogs putting up a ferocious fight.

★ ★ ★

ROGER PRICE, the faculty manager at Massillon, told us the game has been a sellout for three weeks and last week the ticket office had sent back more than 3,000 requests for tickets.

Alliance Favored . . .

THE DISTRICT football teams come out for the final bell tonight and we'll be taking our last stab in the dark when it comes to selecting the winners.

Alliance must rate the edge against East Liverpool, even though we hope the Potters pull a surprise.

Coach Bob McNea's team has been hit by injuries and McNea has almost run out of adequate replacements. This was shown in last week's Salem game when the Quakers had little trouble running through the Blue and White.

Alliance will field a strong backfield, a step or two faster than the Potters. With this in mind, we'll take the Aviators by two touchdowns.

In other grid battles tonight, Wintersville should finish a successful season over Oak Glen by a three-touchdown margin.

Although we would like to see Bud Bucher end his career at Lisbon on a winning note, we have to stick with United in this one, with Gene Metzgar & Co. after their sixth win.

East Palestine rates the edge over Columbiana and Leetonia should conclude its season in the victory column against West Branch.

Stanton Local shoots for its seventh win at Smithfield and should get it, while Toronto rates a big edge over Southern Local and Salem should get past Berea.

Only one game remains on Saturday when Beaver Local visits Wellsville. With the Beavers hobbled from injuries, it looks like the Tigers in this one by a couple of TD's.

Timeout For The Band . . .

IT'S ALWAYS halftime when the East Liverpool High School band performs, so we'll take time out now to pass along our congratulations to a fine group of musicians and their outstanding director, Vincent Maola, who has worked hard to create a fine 160-piece marching unit.

★ ★ ★

IN A RECENT intersquad game at Cincinnati, Ken Cunningham, the ex-Potter court whiz, made 11 of 13 field goal attempts and finished the game with 22 points.

Cunningham is starting his final year with the Bearcats.

Could Be Stumbling Block

Spartans Will Try For 9th Straight Over Notre Dame

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duffy Daughtery isn't trying to get Notre Dame's Irish up, honest he isn't. It just happens that Daugherty coaches the Michigan State football team that just happens to be the main stumbling block on the road to a perfect season for the Irish.

That makes Daugherty public enemy number one around South Bend, Ind. and the affable little Spartan coach is enjoying every minute of it as he readies his club for their shot at the top-ranked Irish Saturday.

Just to stir things up a bit, Daugherty phoned Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian and told him: "Ara, we're going to do you a favor Saturday. We're going to knock you off and take you off the spot."

"You know if you got through unbeaten your first season, you'll be in trouble. Your red-hot alumni will be expecting it every year. So if you lose a couple, they'll be yelling for your scalp. But we'll fix that."

State has fixed Notre Dame pretty well over the last few years with the Irish showing just one victory in the last 12 meetings. Daugherty's clubs have won eight in a row. Mildly stated, the Irish are tired of being pushed around by MSU.

Michigan State lost three of their first four games but has come on strong with three straight victories capped by a 21-7 victory over Purdue last Saturday which knocked the Boilermakers out of a tie for the Big Ten lead.

Notre Dame is 7-0 but had a scare a week ago when it just eked out a 17-15 victory against underdog Pitt.

That close call makes the Irish suspect. Only two weeks ago, Ohio State, then No. 1, slipped by Iowa 21-19. Along came unranked Penn State to knock off the Buckeyes 27-0 last Saturday and drop them to seventh place in the poll. Ohio State goes after some of its lost prestige at home Saturday against Northwestern.

The weekend's slate gets started tonight with Miami of Florida hosting Boston College.

Browns Choice Over Lions

Colts Picked To Get Even With Vikings In Top Tilt

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baltimore should get even with the Minnesota Vikings Sunday for the Colts' only defeat of the season and the unbeaten Buffalo Bills should run their winning streak to 10 games at the expense of the Boston Patriots.

A lucky 10-1 record last week boosted the season batting average to 64-29-5 (39-21-3 in the National Football League and 25-8-2 in the American Football League). Let's take another dip: (all games Sunday afternoon)

NFL

Baltimore 31, Minnesota 21—Ever since the Vikings rolled for 488 yards in the season opener and a 34-24 victory, the Colts have been waiting for another crack at Dutch Van Brocklin's gang. Probable loss of Raymond Berry will hurt Johnny Unitas' passing but Colts' defense has firmed since early season.

Cleveland 24, Detroit 17 — Lions always jinx team for Browns but loss of Joe Schmidt is a severe handicap to Detroit with Jim Brown crashing up the middle.

Green Bay 31, San Francisco 14—Vince Lombardi has Packers on move and the 49ers aren't going to stop them even at home. Packers won first meeting 24-14 and should roll big on the ground with Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung.

St. Louis 21, New York 17—Despite Giants' 34-17 decision two weeks ago, Cards must win to stay in Eastern race. Pass blocking for Charley Johnson should stand up better than it did in New York with John Lo-Vetere out of Giant rush line for season.

Dallas 17, Philadelphia 10 — Cowboys on upgrade with three straight over Cards, Bears and Giants. Eagles have lost last two to Redskins and Rams.

Los Angeles 28, Chicago 21—Rams have running power to take advantage of absence of Bill George in Bears' linebacking department and pass defense to hold Bill Wade's short game within bounds. A word of caution! In their first meeting Bears won 38-17.

Washington 24, Pittsburgh 21—Redskins moving up with two wins in last three starts and 24 points in losing effort against Cleveland. Steelers have dropped four in a row since upsetting Browns.

AFL

Buffalo 27, Boston 24—Bills have been just squeaking through in last three games but this is the big one. Pats thumped Bills in tie playoff game last December and they haven't forgotten.

New York 30, Denver 14—Jets should win but not if they expect a pushover. The Broncs were rough on San Diego last week with the Chargers pulling it out late.

Kansas City 24, San Diego 21 — Despite long-time hex the Chargers have over the Chiefs, Kansas City showed good punch last week against Oakland while San Diego was so-so.

Houston 28, Oakland 21—Oilers won earlier 42-28 and Raiders looked disorganized last week against Kansas City.

Bunning Selected NL's Comeback Player In '64

CINCINNATI (AP) — "Comeback of the year? Comeback from where? Where have I been?"

These were the questions asked by Jim Bunning, Philadelphia Phils pitcher, when told he had been selected Thursday as the National League's Comeback Player of the Year for 1964 in The Associated Press poll.

Bunning had a 19-8 record with the Phils this year and on June 21 hurled the major leagues' first regular-season perfect game in 42 years. It was against the New York Mets.

He had only a 12-13 record with the Detroit Tigers in 1963 and, in the 1963-64 off-season was traded, along with catcher Gus Triandos, to the Phils for outfielder Don Demteer and Pitcher Jack Hamilton.

Bunning, a resident of nearby Ft. Thomas, Ky., works for a Cincinnati investment house during the winter.

Although he questioned the "comeback" idea, Bunning admitted he pitched better this year than in 1963.

Part of his improved record, he said, was due to a "better defense."

Then, referring to his 1963 record, Bunning admitted:

"I didn't pitch well. I pitched 248 innings and for six weeks I pitched as bad as I ever have in my life."

He didn't blame injuries or illness—just bad pitching.

"Asked about the 1965 season, Bunning said:

"I'm looking forward to it. I think all of us are. We blew the pennant this year and we don't want to do it again."

The Phils let a six-game lead get away from them in the next-to-last week of the season but salvaged a second-place tie with Cincinnati as the St. Louis Cardinals won the pennant.

Bunning is a 1953 graduate of Cincinnati's Xavier University. He and Mrs. Bunning are the parents of seven children—a daughter, 12; twins, a boy and a girl, 10; a daughter, 8; a son, 6; a daughter, 5, and a son, 3.

Hawks' Pettit Eyes 20,000th Point Tonight

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bob Pettit is gunning for another record tonight in the National Basketball Association—and he's sure to make it.

The rangy captain of the St. Louis Hawks needs just seven points to become the first player in NBA history to score 20,000 points, a feat somewhat akin to Babe Ruth hitting 714 home runs.

Pettit will be the first man in the "20,000 club."

The Hawks tangle with the Cincinnati Royals today, a game that Royals coach Jack McMahon is looking forward to. His star player, Oscar Robertson, is expected to be in action for the first time since he suffered an eye injury Nov. 1.

During the Big O's absence, the Royals lost three games and won one — over the Hawks Wednesday night.

Awarded Fellowship

NEW YORK (AP) — Arnold Chonko, Ohio State defensive halfback, is one of eight college football players named winners of the $500 fellowships provided annually by Col. Earl H. Blaik, former Army coach.

Chonko plans to go on to medical school and he will also share in the $2,500 Medical Awards Foundations Award.

76ers Rally, Hand Celtics First Defeat

By The Associated Press

"It was the greatest comeback in the history of basketball."

That was Dolph Schayes, coach of the Philadelphia 76ers, beaming after his 76ers had come from 25 points behind in the third quarter to upset the champion Boston Celtics 110-109 in the National Basketball Association Thursday. It was the Celtics' first defeat of the season after 11 straight triumphs.

"It was the greatest comeback," Schayes went on, "because it was against Boston. That's something that has never happened to Boston."

The 76ers won on Paul Neumann's 20-foot jump shot with eight seconds left to play. It was the first game of a doubleheader before 14,378 at New York's Madison Square Garden.

In the nightcap the Los Angeles Lakers tied the score in the last five seconds then went on to beat the New York Knicks 132-123 in overtime.

Detroit made it two straight under its new coach, Dave DeBusschere, beating the San Francisco Warriors 121-99 on the Pistons' home court.

Boston got off to a 11-0 lead against Philadelphia and led 80-55 midway of the third period before the 76ers caught fire.

"We didn't like to see it end this way," said Boston Coach Red Auerbach, "but we knew it had to happen sometime." He indicated things would be different when Boston plays at Philadelphia Saturday night.

Colts Picked To Get Even With Vikings In Top Tilt

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baltimore should get even with the Minnesota Vikings Sunday for the Colts' only defeat of the season and the unbeaten Buffalo Bills should run their winning streak to 10 games at the expense of the Boston Patriots.

A lucky 10-1 record last week boosted the season batting average to 64-29-5 (39-21-3 in the National Football League and 25-8-2 in the American Football League). Let's take another dip: (all games Sunday afternoon)

NFL

Baltimore 31, Minnesota 21—Ever since the Vikings rolled for 488 yards in the season opener and a 34-24 victory, the Colts have been waiting for another crack at Dutch Van Brocklin's gang. Probable loss of Raymond Berry will hurt Johnny Unitas' passing but Colts' defense has firmed since early season.

Cleveland 24, Detroit 17 — Lions always jinx team for Browns but loss of Joe Schmidt is a severe handicap to Detroit with Jim Brown crashing up the middle.

Green Bay 31, San Francisco 14—Vince Lombardi has Packers on move and the 49ers aren't going to stop them even at home. Packers won first meeting 24-14 and should roll big on the ground with Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung.

St. Louis 21, New York 17—Despite Giants' 34-17 decision two weeks ago, Cards must win to stay in Eastern race. Pass blocking for Charley Johnson should stand up better than it did in New York with John LoVetere out of Giant rush line for season.

Dallas 17, Philadelphia 10 — Cowboys on upgrade with three straight over Cards, Bears and Giants. Eagles have lost last two to Redskins and Rams.

Los Angeles 28, Chicago 21—Rams have running power to take advantage of absence of Bill George in Bears' linebacking department and pass defense to hold Bill Wade's short game within bounds. A word of caution! In their first meeting Bears won 38-17.

Washington 24, Pittsburgh 21—Redskins moving up with two wins in last three starts and 24 points in losing effort against Cleveland. Steelers have dropped four in a row since upsetting Browns.

AFL

Buffalo 27, Boston 24—Bills have been just squeaking through in last three games but this is the big one. Pats thumped Bills in tie playoff game last December and they haven't forgotten.

New York 30, Denver 14—Jets should win but not if they expect a pushover. The Broncs were rough on San Diego last week with the Chargers pulling it out late.

Kansas City 24, San Diego 21 — Despite long-time hex the Chargers have over the Chiefs, Kansas City showed good punch last week against Oakland while San Diego was so-so.

Houston 28, Oakland 21—Oilers won earlier 42-28 and Raiders looked disorganized last week against Kansas City.

Hawks' Pettit Eyes 20,000th Point Tonight

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bob Pettit is gunning for another record tonight in the National Basketball Association—and he's sure to make it.

The rangy captain of the St. Louis Hawks needs just seven points to become the first player in NBA history to score 20,000 points, a feat somewhat akin to Babe Ruth hitting 714 home runs.

Pettit will be the first man in the "20,000 club."

The Hawks tangle with the Cincinnati Royals today, a game that Royals coach Jack McMahon is looking forward to. His star player, Oscar Robertson, is expected to be in action for the first time since he suffered an eye injury Nov. 1.

During the Big O's absence, the Royals lost three games and won one — over the Hawks Wednesday night.

Awarded Fellowship

NEW YORK (AP) — Arnold Chonko, Ohio State defensive halfback, is one of eight college football players named winners of the $500 fellowships provided annually by Col. Earl H. Blaik, former Army coach.

Chonko plans to go on to medical school and he will also share in the $2,500 Medical Awards Foundations Award.

Bunning Selected NL's Comeback Player In '64

CINCINNATI (AP) — "Comeback of the year? Comeback from where? Where have I been?"

These were the questions asked by Jim Bunning, Philadelphia Phils pitcher, when told he had been selected Thursday as the National League's Comeback Player of the Year for 1964 in The Associated Press poll.

Bunning had a 19-8 record with the Phils this year and on June 21 hurled the major leagues' first regular-season perfect game in 42 years. It was against the New York Mets.

He had only a 12-13 record with the Detroit Tigers in 1963 and, in the 1963-64 off-season was traded, along with catcher Gus Triandos, to the Phils for outfielder Don Demteer and Pitcher Jack Hamilton.

Bunning, a resident of nearby Ft. Thomas, Ky., works for a Cincinnati investment house during the winter.

Although he questioned the "comeback" idea, Bunning admitted he pitched better this year than in 1963.

Part of his improved record, he said, was due to a "better defense."

Then, referring to his 1963 record, Bunning admitted:

"I didn't pitch well. I pitched 248 innings and for six weeks I pitched as bad as I ever have in my life."

He didn't blame injuries or illness—just bad pitching.

"Asked about the 1965 season, Bunning said:

"I'm looking forward to it. I think all of us are. We blew the pennant this year and we don't want to do it again."

The Phils let a six-game lead get away from them in the next-to-last week of the season but salvaged a second-place tie with Cincinnati as the St. Louis Cardinals won the pennant.

Bunning is a 1953 graduate of Cincinnati's Xavier University. He and Mrs. Bunning are the parents of seven children—a daughter, 12; twins, a boy and a girl, 10; a daughter, 8; a son, 6; a daughter, 5, and a son, 3.

Beaver Public's 7th Grade Team Goes Undefeated

Beaver Local Public's seventh grade team finished its season undefeated with a perfect 6-0 record.

The young Beavers made it six straight Tuesday with a 30-6 win over East Palestine.

Beaver Public outscored its opponents this season 130-12. Bruce Diddle led the team in scoring and Rick Merritt was the leading ground gainer.

76ers Rally, Hand Celtics First Defeat

By The Associated Press

"It was the greatest comeback in the history of basketball."

That was Dolph Schayes, coach of the Philadelphia 76ers, beaming after his 76ers had come from 25 points behind in the third quarter to upset the champion Boston Celtics 110-109 in the National Basketball Association Thursday. It was the Celtics' first defeat of the season after 11 straight triumphs.

"It was the greatest comeback," Schayes went on, "because it was against Boston. That's something that has never happened to Boston."

The 76ers won on Paul Neumann's 20-foot jump shot with eight seconds left to play. It was the first game of a doubleheader before 14,378 at New York's Madison Square Garden.

In the nightcap the Los Angeles Lakers tied the score in the last five seconds then went on to beat the New York Knicks 132-123 in overtime.

Detroit made it two straight under its new coach, Dave DeBusschere, beating the San Francisco Warriors 121-99 on the Pistons' home court.

Boston got off to a 11-0 lead against Philadelphia and led 80-55 midway of the third period before the 76ers caught fire.

"We didn't like to see it end this way," said Boston Coach Red Auerbach, "but we knew it had to happen sometime." He indicated things would be different when Boston plays at Philadelphia Saturday night.

How To Ruin A Newscast

"Good taste should prevail in the selection and handling of news," it says in a section of the Television Code which theoretically is lived up to by all members of the National Association of Broadcasters.

Hal Humphrey

The Code Authority, as it is called, must have a very loose interpretation of what is meant by "good taste," or it isn't watching TV newscasters.

In Los Angeles the three network-owned-and-operated TV channels have been huckstering the news like a detergent or toothpaste. There are reports of similar practice in other parts of the country.

-:-

THIS "PROMOTING" of the news frequently borders on the morbid. On the day Harpo Marx died, for example, one newscaster came on during the station break just preceding his regular newscast and announced "one of Hollywood's famed comedy names has died." He did not say who it was until three commercials later.

The late President Herbert Hoover also was used as a "teaser" for a newscast on one channel while he lay in a coma.

"For the latest on Herbert Hoover, tune in tonight at 11 o'clock," said the newscaster in a news "commercial" a half-hour earlier.

A local newscast in Los Angeles is broken into midway for the national ABC network news. To make certain he does not lose his audience, the local newscaster offers his audience cliff hangers.

RECENTLY, just before bowing to the national commentator, the local man announced, "A terrible, terrible cave-in took place today in Hawthorne . . . we'll get to that after the national news."

Seven or eight minutes later he is back to tell the names of the two men who died in the cave-in and to show an overlong and detailed pictorial report of the accident.

This total disrespect for the news is embroidered, as you can see, by sadism. Newspapers have been accused of "scare headlines" and other journalistic tricks, but never has it been recorded that a newspaper has advertised a news story in one edition, then told the reader to buy the next edition for details.

A FEW WEEKS AGO a Los Angeles channel took large newspaper ads to announce that $2,700 of our money says you've never seen news like you see it tonight on KNBC News."

An asterisk after the word "money" referred to a footnote reading, $2,700 (is) price of this ad. We spent much more on new set, format, etc."

It may be assumed that the "et cetera" includes the presentation of the news itself, although a viewer-listener of TV newscasts sometimes must wonder if he is witnessing a news program or a sketch in a variety show.

TV is a visual medium (someone once pointed out), so naturally it is important to have pleasant-looking types (with benefit of makeup) delivering to any TV newscast.

BUT WHEN the news itself is corrupted for "show biz" reasons, it is time for genuine newsmen everywhere to voice a protest.

Fortunately, not every TV newsman is willing to be corrupted in this manner. Bill Crago, one of the best, quit a local TV station here some time ago when a new management instructed him to "swing the news."

Bill didn't hang around long enough to find out what that meant. He does his newscasts on radio now, where there is still a semblance of sanity.

A&P Chairman Says Firm's Not For Sale

NEW YORK (AP)—The chairman of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., John D. Ehrgott, says the A&P is not for sale and never has been.

He made the remark Thursday in commenting on reports that the supermarket chain was receptive to purchase by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Failing May Start Child Toward Success

Some while ago I observed in this column that I receive many letters about children who have been lagging at school; also that I receive an occasional letter about the child who rather abruptly drops in his school achievement. Then I said it would be a pleasure to me to read some letters about children having been laggards taking a sudden spurt in school progress; also that if I could relay them in my column, they might have good effect.

Dr. Garry Myers

Among the replies was the following letter from an Indiana mother:

"Our son's experience is a classic example of the failing boy who becomes a successful student overnight. He is eleven, very healthy, 'friendly and cheerful' according to his report card, and very pleasant around home, but up until the end of last October that was all he had going for him.

"HE FAILED the fourth grade last year and has always brought home constant complaints from his teachers that he daydreamed too much and seemed generally disinterested in school, although he gave indications of being capable of good work. If we pressed him hard enough he would make a small effort for a few weeks, then slack off to his usual daydreaming.

We tried to help him with his lessons but he couldn't seem to retain even the simplest facts for more than a few minutes and though he could read very well he inserted his own words rather than to trouble himself with what was really in the book.

"I had a small success following your advice and giving him certain unavoidable duties around home but I didn't have my heart in it even though I'm convinced that it's a valuable method of handling the daydreamer, if he or she doesn't have a daydreaming mother.

"THE REAL problem was with me and my fear of school. I was radiating with it. I had been a very good student in grade school and always liked school even though I was afraid. There had been talk of letting me skip the sixth grade altogether but after the I.Q. tests were checked there was no more talk of that kind.

"For reasons that are obvious to me now I went numb on that test. It might not have left any visible scars if the principal hadn't said, 'I always thought you were very intelligent but according to these tests you're below normal.' I haven't figured out yet whether she was intentionally cruel or just thoughtless but she never mentioned it again and I didn't dare. The thought never really formed but the feeling was there that for some reason I was always afraid someone else was going to point it out.

"So it was impossible for me to put my son to the test until last October when his teacher sent me a note saying that he was too big a boy to fail the fourth grade twice. This is the same school where I had my little trauma and two shocks in the same place sort of neutralized my own personal problem.

"I ENROLLED in a night school credit course to finish high school and am an 'A' student. As for our boy, we had to practically threaten his life to get him awake but now he's astounding everyone. He's still 'friendly and cheerful' but he's so much more. The grades are excellent and he's interested in everyone as though he's seeing the world for the first time. Perhaps we both are.

"His teacher deserves a tremendous amount of praise for she has taken his new interest and touched it to many wonderful things, especially to her own wonderful personality. But the most important thing to him, I believe, is that we, his parents, finally have real faith in him."

What an amazing achievement! I'd like to read more of such letters, wouldn't you?

My bulletin, "Helping Our Children Succeed at School," may be secured by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

It's Beethoven By Landslide In Composer Poll

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was Beethoven by a landslide — bigger than the one President Johnson chalked up — when the National Symphony Orchestra logged the returns in its favorite symphonic composer poll.

In an awesome display of musical popularity, the Bonn genius got 61.7 per cent of the vote in a field of 38 — a little better than the 61.4 per cent Johnson scored in another sort of contest last week. Immediately behind Beethoven were Sibelius, Mozart, Brahms and Tchaikovsky.

The National Symphony mailed 35,000 ballots to subscribers and the general public. About 1,000 ballots were returned.

Police Hunt Robber In Loan Firm Holdup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police were searching today for an armed robber who took an undetermined amount of cash from the Clintonville branch of the Central Savings & Loan Co.

Police said the man, armed with a .45 caliber automatic, held the manager and a teller at gunpoint Thursday and forced them to fill a bag with money. He fled after forcing the employes into a rear room.

4-H News

Roll call response was a common horse term at a meeting of the Flying Hooves 4-H Saddle Club Wednesday evening with Mrs. Ronald Flowers of Pughtown.

Susan Jones gave a demonstration of cleaning the bridle, and John Hukill reported on the 4-H skating party held Tuesday night at the Melody Lanes Rink.

Lunch was served 18 by Cathy Virden and Hukill. The next meeting will be a Christmas grabbag Dec. 7 with Mrs. Flowers leader.

How To Ruin A Newscast

"Good taste should prevail in the selection and handling of news," it says in a section of the Television Code which theoretically is lived up to by all members of the National Association of Broadcasters.

Hal Humphrey

The Code Authority, as it is called, must have a very loose interpretation of what is meant by "good taste," or it isn't watching TV newscasters.

In Los Angeles the three network-owned-and-operated TV channels have been huckstering the news like a detergent or toothpaste. There are reports of similar practice in other parts of the country.

-:-

THIS "PROMOTING" of the news frequently borders on the morbid. On the day Harpo Marx died, for example, one newscaster came on during the station break just preceding his regular newscast and announced "one of Hollywood's famed comedy names has died." He did not say who it was until three commercials later.

The late President Herbert Hoover also was used as a "teaser" for a newscast on one channel while he lay in a coma.

"For the latest on Herbert Hoover, tune in tonight at 11 o'clock," said the newscaster in a news "commercial" a half-hour earlier.

A local newscast in Los Angeles is broken into midway for the national ABC network news. To make certain he does not lose his audience, the local newscaster offers his audience cliff hangers.

RECENTLY, just before bowing to the national commentator, the local man announced, "A terrible, terrible cave-in took place today in Hawthorne . . . we'll get to that after the national news."

Seven or eight minutes later he is back to tell the names of the two men who died in the cave-in and to show an overlong and detailed pictorial report of the accident.

This total disrespect for the news is embroidered, as you can see, by sadism. Newspapers have been accused of "scare headlines" and other journalistic tricks, but never has it been recorded that a newspaper has advertised a news story in one edition, then told the reader to buy the next edition for details.

A FEW WEEKS AGO a Los Angeles channel took large newspaper ads to announce that $2,700 of our money says you've never seen news like you see it tonight on KNBC News."

An asterisk after the word "money" referred to a footnote reading, $2,700 (is) price of this ad. We spent much more on new set, format, etc."

It may be assumed that the "et cetera" includes the presentation of the news itself, although a viewer-listener of TV newscasts sometimes must wonder if he is witnessing a news program or a sketch in a variety show.

TV is a visual medium (someone once pointed out), so naturally it is important to have pleasant-looking types (with benefit of makeup) delivering to any TV newscast.

BUT WHEN the news itself is corrupted for "show biz" reasons, it is time for genuine newsmen everywhere to voice a protest.

Fortunately, not every TV newsman is willing to be corrupted in this manner. Bill Crago, one of the best, quit a local TV station here some time ago when a new management instructed him to "swing the news."

Bill didn't hang around long enough to find out what that meant. He does his newscasts on radio now, where there is still a semblance of sanity.

A&P Chairman Says Firm's Not For Sale

NEW YORK (AP)—The chairman of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., John D. Ehrgott, says the A&P is not for sale and never has been.

He made the remark Thursday in commenting on reports that the supermarket chain was receptive to purchase by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Ohio Couple Killed In Pennsy Pike Crash

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP) — George K. Tashjiam, 58, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and his wife, Elsie, 54, were killed Thursday when their car crashed through a guard rail at the Bedford interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and plunged 20 feet down an embankment.

Another woman, Irene Yeranosian, 50, of Chicago, was listed in fair condition at Bedford County Memorial Hospital here.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Failing May Start Child Toward Success

Some while ago I observed in this column that I receive many letters about children who have been lagging at school; also that I receive an occasional letter about the child who rather abruptly drops in his school achievement. Then I said it would be a pleasure to me to read some letters about children having been laggards taking a sudden spurt in school progress; also that if I could relay them in my column, they might have good effect.

Dr. Garry Myers

Among the replies was the following letter from an Indiana mother:

"Our son's experience is a classic example of the failing boy who becomes a successful student overnight. He is eleven, very healthy, 'friendly and cheerful' according to his report card, and very pleasant around home, but up until the end of last October that was all he had going for him.

"HE FAILED the fourth grade last year and has always brought home constant complaints from his teachers that he daydreamed too much and seemed generally disinterested in school, although he gave indications of being capable of good work. If we pressed him hard enough he would make a small effort for a few weeks, then slack off to his usual daydreaming.

We tried to help him with his lessons but he couldn't seem to retain even the simplest facts for more than a few minutes and though he could read very well he inserted his own words rather than to trouble himself with what was really in the book.

"I had a small success following your advice and giving him certain unavoidable duties around home but I didn't have my heart in it even though I'm convinced that it's a valuable method of handling the daydreamer, if he or she doesn't have a daydreaming mother.

"THE REAL problem was with me and my fear of school. I was radiating with it. I had been a very good student in grade school and always liked school even though I was afraid. There had been talk of letting me skip the sixth grade altogether but after the I.Q. tests were checked there was no more talk of that kind.

"For reasons that are obvious to me now I went numb on that test. It might not have left any visible scars if the principal hadn't said, 'I always thought you were very intelligent but according to these tests you're below normal.' I haven't figured out yet whether she was intentionally cruel or just thoughtless but she never mentioned it again and I didn't dare. The thought never really formed but the feeling was there that for some reason I was always afraid someone else was going to point it out.

"So it was impossible for me to put my son to the test until last October when his teacher sent me a note saying that he was too big a boy to fail the fourth grade twice. This is the same school where I had my little trauma and two shocks in the same place sort of neutralized my own personal problem.

"I ENROLLED in a night school credit course to finish high school and am an 'A' student. As for our boy, we had to practically threaten his life to get him awake but now he's astounding everyone. He's still 'friendly and cheerful' but he's so much more. The grades are excellent and he's interested in everyone as though he's seeing the world for the first time. Perhaps we both are.

"His teacher deserves a tremendous amount of praise for she has taken his new interest and touched it to many wonderful things, especially to her own wonderful personality. But the most important thing to him, I believe, is that we, his parents, finally have real faith in him."

What an amazing achievement! I'd like to read more of such letters, wouldn't you?

My bulletin, "Helping Our Children Succeed at School," may be secured by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

It's Beethoven By Landslide In Composer Poll

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was Beethoven by a landslide — bigger than the one President Johnson chalked up — when the National Symphony Orchestra logged the returns in its favorite symphonic composer poll.

In an awesome display of musical popularity, the Bonn genius got 61.7 per cent of the vote in a field of 38 — a little better than the 61.4 per cent Johnson scored in another sort of contest last week. Immediately behind Beethoven were Sibelius, Mozart, Brahms and Tchaikovsky.

The National Symphony mailed 35,000 ballots to subscribers and the general public. About 1,000 ballots were returned.

Police Hunt Robber In Loan Firm Holdup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police were searching today for an armed robber who took an undetermined amount of cash from the Clintonville branch of the Central Savings & Loan Co.

Police said the man, armed with a .45 caliber automatic, held the manager and a teller at gunpoint Thursday and forced them to fill a bag with money. He fled after forcing the employes into a rear room.

4-H News

Roll call response was a common horse term at a meeting of the Flying Hooves 4-H Saddle Club Wednesday evening with Mrs. Ronald Flowers of Pughtown.

Susan Jones gave a demonstration of cleaning the bridle, and John Hukill reported on the 4-H skating party held Tuesday night at the Melody Lanes Rink.

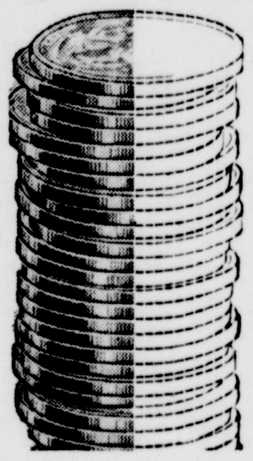

Lunch was served 18 by Cathy Virden and Hukill. The next meeting will be a Christmas grabbag Dec. 7 with Mrs. Flowers leader.

CROP Seeks Area Support

LISBON — An appeal for the annual Christian Rural Overseas Program has been made to Granges, Farm Bureau Councils, ministers, ministerial associations, service clubs, and 4-H clubs to help the Columbiana County drive, the Rev. Frank Hare, county chairman, said.

CROP is the agency through which the Church World Service Organization works to secure funds for providing help to those in need.

Program includes purchase and distribution of commodities which are in surplus in the nation. A dollar will help provide over 300 pounds of surplus foods.

CROP is also a program to help people in need help themselves. This is done through projects which help men and women in needy areas establish profitable agricultural enterprises of their own.

Contributions for CROP may be sent to Miss Diane Armstrong, 113 S. Market St., Lisbon, or directly to the Columbus office. Miss Armstrong, secretary - treasurer of CROP for the county, urges all contributions be sent in by mid - December.

Japanese Supporter Of Goldwater Resigns

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government official who campaigned for Sen. Barry Goldwater in Hawaii has resigned.

Yoshiro Kikuchi, 74, gave up the post of vice parliamentary minister of science and technology on Nov. 2, the government announced today. Yazo Kotsuke, 69, succeeded him.

The government ordered Kikuchi home from Honolulu on Oct. 31 after word of his political activities reached Tokyo. Officials felt his campaigning was an interference in U.S. internal affairs.

CROP Seeks Area Support

LISBON — An appeal for the annual Christian Rural Overseas Program has been made to Granges, Farm Bureau Councils, ministers, ministerial associations, service clubs, and 4-H clubs to help the Columbiana County drive, the Rev. Frank Hare, county chairman, said.

CROP is the agency through which the Church World Service Organization works to secure funds for providing help to those in need.

Program includes purchase and distribution of commodities which are in surplus in the nation. A dollar will help provide over 300 pounds of surplus foods.

CROP is also a program to help people in need help themselves. This is done through projects which help men and women in needy areas establish profitable agricultural enterprises of their own.

Contributions for CROP may be sent to Miss Diane Armstrong, 113 S. Market St., Lisbon, or directly to the Columbus office. Miss Armstrong, secretary - treasurer of CROP for the county, urges all contributions be sent in by mid - December.

Japanese Supporter Of Goldwater Resigns

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government official who campaigned for Sen. Barry Goldwater in Hawaii has resigned.

Yoshiro Kikuchi, 74, gave up the post of vice parliamentary minister of science and technology on Nov. 2, the government announced today. Yazo Kotsuke, 69, succeeded him.

The government ordered Kikuchi home from Honolulu on Oct. 31 after word of his political activities reached Tokyo. Officials felt his campaigning was an interference in U.S. internal affairs.

INSTANT HEAT Anywhere!

Only a Knipco heater brings you circulating warm air instantly, wherever you need it. Plug it in anywhere—indoors or out. Use the really low priced Knipco in your machine shed, hog house, milk house, or chicken house. Thaw pipes, pumps, equipment. Preheat engines. Many other applications.

Burns kerosene or No. 1 fuel oil, needs no vent. Anyone can run it. Plug in for heat—pull plug to stop! Thermostat available.

Knipco Model F155 and the FV200 vented heater work just as easy but put out more heat. Stop in soon for a demonstration.

INSTANT HEAT Anywhere!

Only a Knipco heater brings you circulating warm air instantly, wherever you need it. Plug it in anywhere—indoors or out. Use the really low priced Knipco in your machine shed, hog house, milk house, or chicken house. Thaw pipes, pumps, equipment. Preheat engines. Many other applications.

Burns kerosene or No. 1 fuel oil, needs no vent. Anyone can run it. Plug in for heat—pull plug to stop! Thermostat available.

Knipco Model F155 and the FV200 vented heater work just as easy but put out more heat. Stop in soon for a demonstration.

"I hate to pay a mechanic when we might accidentally touch something that will start it."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I clean discolored brick walls?

A. — Dissolve an ounce of glue in a gallon of hot water, add a piece of alum about the size of an egg, plus a half-pound of Venetian red, and a pound of Spanish brown. Apply this mixture to the brick surface with a brush, and your bricks should emerge as bright as when new.

Q. — How can I repair cigarette burns in furniture upholstery?

A. — Select a yarn color to match the upholstery material, and darn the hole with close stitches. Then place a damp cloth over the spot and iron the patched area.

Q. — How can I remove oil stains from brick?

A. — Dissolve one pound of trisodium phosphate in one gallon of water, then mix with whiting to form a paste. Spread a ½-inch layer of this paste over the oil stain, let it dry thoroughly, then scrape off and wash with clear water.

Q. — How can I make a good job of removing old finish from furniture when I wish to refinish it?

A. — Use paint or varnish remover, obtainable at any hardware or paint store. If a tinge of the old paint still remains, mix two tablespoons of oxalic acid with a quart of water, douse this mixture on the furniture with a brush, and let stay 15 minutes before rinsing with plain water. This will bleach the wood to its natural color. Be sure to protect your hands with rubber gloves and avoid splashing yourself!

Q. — How can I remedy some laundry which I have inadvertently given an overdose of bluing?

A.—Wet the stained portions with alcohol, then launder the whole thing over again.

Junior Editors Quiz on X—RAYS

QUESTION: How are x-rays generated?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Early experimenters found that if you had a sealed glass tube from which the air had been drawn, with wires in each end, an electric current could pass through it. One day the scientist, William Konrad Roentgen, was experimenting with a screen painted with certain chemicals which could be made to glow or "fluoresce." The screen was a few feet away from a tube such as we mentioned, and the screen glowed in the dark. Roentgen put a piece of metal between tube and screen; the light still came faintly through. Then he interposed his hand, and to his amazement saw his hand's shadow with the hitherto unseen bones clearly showing. The scientist realized that a new kind of ray was coming from the tube. He called these "X-rays" to show they were unknown. It was a great discovery—doctors could look through their patients' bodies. Nowadays, in an X-ray tube, the cathode or negative end is heated so it gives out a stream of electrons which are hurled at a tungsten "target" at the other end. The atoms in the target are then forced to emit powerful X-rays. Most X-rays can pentrate such things as metal and human flesh. They are related to other rays, such as radio and heat rays, but have an extremely short wave length.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Hold your hand next to a bright light and see if you can see any trace at all of the bones inside. You can't. You will understand, therefore, why Roentgen was so startled when he did see them.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: We have a large family so I have scads of ironing to do. The handle of the iron made my hand so sore until I thought of this idea:

I cut a long strip (about two inches wide) from an old silk dress and wrapped around and around the handle, sewing the end piece. (An old nylon stocking could be used in place of the strip of silk.)

This has eliminated blisters and sore hands because the material gives a little with each swipe of the iron.

MARTHA.

Works beautifully, too, may I say.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Do you hunt in vain for those elusive instruction booklets when an appliance breaks down?

Well, we did too, until we happened upon a simple solution:

We now keep a 9x12-inch manila envelope in the kitchen drawer and into it go all instruction booklets and guarantees for everything from the can opener to the lawn mower, furnace, water heater, washing machine, etc.

This has prevented many frayed nerves and probably some service calls.

Instruction booklets are great to have when something breaks down.

READER.

DEAR HELOISE: My hint is for mothers with small children in school.

Learn right along with them. According to my boy, the teacher is always right!

BARBY.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is something I'd like to share with you all:

Try putting a contour sheet on the BOTTOM of your bedsprings to keep dust from accumulating on the springs. The sheet will fit perfectly on box springs.

On open springs I sew tapes on the sheet and anchor it by tying the tapes to the springs. How it saves on dusting!

The furniture man who delivered a new mattress and springs to me thought I should pass this idea on—so here it is.

MRS. EDITH SCHWARTZ.

Gals, wait until your husband is home to do this—then he can lift that heavy mattress and springs — and at the same time why not have him turn the mattress. . . .!!?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My four children came along so close together that we had to hand down their baby clothes and they got to be so drab looking.

Now when I dye anything, I just throw these yellowed undershirts, etc., in the washer with the things I am dyeing and the children have colored underwear!

They just love the colored clothes, and I can hang them out on the line with pride.

BEV PETROSKY.

DEAR HELOISE: When playing a game requiring a board, we place the board on a Lazy Susan.

In this way, the board can be revolved to each person in turn, thereby helping with their concentration.

MRS. HOMER O. BLAIR.

DEAR HELOISE: To put shoes and socks on baby, have him sit on his crib mattress with his feet hanging out between the side crib slats.

Of course, in doing this I have to sit on the floor but find that both boys (twins) wait patiently and will sit quietly instead of squirming to get down as they do when sitting on my lap.
